(3) In calculating an individual's gains and profits from an employment for a year of assessment the following shall be excluded:-

- (a) exempt amounts and final withholding payments;
- (b) a discharge or reimbursement of expenses incurred by the individual on behalf of the employer;
- (c) a discharge or reimbursement of the person's dental, medical or health insurance expenses where the benefit is available to all full-time employees on equal terms;
- (d) payments made to or benefits accruing to employees on a non-discriminatory basis that, by reason of their size, type and frequency, are unreasonable or administratively impracticable for the employer to account for or to allocate to the individual;
- (e) the value of a right or option to acquire shares at the time granted to an employee under an employee share scheme (referred to in paragraph (j) of subsection (2)); and

- (f) subject to conditions as may be specified by the Commissioner-General, contributions made by an employer to an employee's account with a pension, provident or savings fund or savings society approved by the Commissioner - General.

6. (1) A person's income from a business for a year of assessment shall be the person's gains and profits from conducting the business for the year. Business income.

(2) In calculating a person's gains and profits from conducting a business for a year of assessment the following amounts derived by the person during the year of assessment from the business shall be included—

- (a) service fees;
- (b) consideration received in respect of trading stock;
- (c) gains from the realisation of capital assets and liabilities of the business as calculated under Chapter IV;
- (d) amounts required to be included by the Second or Fourth Schedule to this Act on the realisation of the person's depreciable assets of the business;
- (e) amounts derived as consideration for accepting a restriction on the capacity to conduct the business;
- (f) gifts received by the person in respect of the business;
- (g) amounts derived that are effectively connected with the business and that would otherwise be included in calculating the person's income from an investment; and

(h) other amounts required to be included under this Act.

(3) In calculating a person's gains and profits from conducting a business for a year of assessment the following shall be excluded:-

- (a) exempt amounts and final withholding payments; and
- (b) amounts that are included in calculating the person's income from an employment.

Investment income.

7. (1) A person's income from an investment for a year of assessment shall be the person's gains and profits from that investment for the year.

(2) In calculating a person's gains and profits from an investment derived or received during a year of assessment the following amounts received or derived by the person during the year of assessment from the investment shall be included:-

- (a) dividends, interest, discounts, charges, annuities, natural resource payments, rents, premiums and royalties;
- (b) gains from the realisation of investment assets as calculated under Chapter IV;
- (c) amounts derived as consideration for accepting a restriction on the capacity to conduct the investment;
- (d) gifts received by the person in respect of the investment;
- (e) winnings from lotteries, betting or gambling; and
- (f) other amounts required to be included under this Act.

(3) In calculating a person's gains and profits from an investment for a year of assessment the following shall be excluded:-

- (a) exempt amounts and final withholding payments;
and
- (b) amounts that are included in calculating the person's income from an employment or business.

8. (1) A person's income from other sources for a year of assessment shall be that person's gains and profits from any source whatsoever for the year, not including profits of a casual and non-recurring nature. Other income.

(2) In calculating a person's gains or profits from any source whatsoever, the following shall be excluded:-

- (a) exempt amounts and final withholding payments;
and
- (b) amounts that are included in calculating the person's income from an employment, business or investment.

Division III: Exempt Amounts

9. (1) The amounts referred to in the Third Schedule to this Act shall be exempt from the payment of tax. Exempt amounts.

(2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, an exemption of any person or amount from tax imposed by this Act shall not be provided and an agreement that affects or purports to affect the application of this Act shall not be entered into, except as provided for in this Act.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply to a provision in another law or an agreement that is in force on date of commencement of this Act.

Division IV: Deductions

General Deduction.

10. (1) (a) No deduction shall be made in calculating a person's income from employment.

(b) The following deductions shall not be made in calculating a person's income:-

- (i) domestic expenses incurred by the person (section 197);
- (ii) tax payable under this Act;
- (iii) interest, penalties and fines payable to a government or a political subdivision of a government of any country for breach of any written law;
- (iv) expenditure to the extent incurred by a person in deriving exempt amounts or final withholding payments;
- (v) retirement contributions, unless they are included in calculating the income of an employee or consist of a contribution by an employer to a pension, provident or savings fund or a savings society, which is approved by the Commissioner-General subject to any specified conditions;
- (vi) dividends of a company;
- (vii) outlays or expenses for entertainment;
- (viii) an amount that a person has transferred, in his financial accounts, to a reserve or provision for expenditures or losses not yet incurred but expected to be incurred in a future year of assessment;

- (ix) amounts incurred on lotteries, betting or gambling, other than amounts incurred from conducting a business of lotteries, betting or gambling; or
- (x) taxes or other levies specified by the Commissioner-General.

(2) Where a person is allowed a deduction for a payment from which the person is required to withhold tax under Division II of Chapter VIII, the deduction shall not be allowed until the tax withheld has been paid to the Commissioner-General.

(3) No deduction shall be allowed except as expressly permitted by this Act.

(4) Where more than one deduction applies, the most specific deduction shall be applied even if that results in the denial of a deduction.

11. (1) In calculating a person's income from a business or investment for a year of assessment, expenses to the extent they are incurred during the year by the person and in the production of income from the business or investment, shall be deducted.

Main deduction.

(2) No deduction shall be allowed under subsection (1) for an expense of a capital nature.

(3) In this section, "expense of a capital nature" includes an expense that secures a benefit capable of lasting longer than twelve months.

12. For the purposes of section 11, the interest incurred by a person during a year of assessment under a debt obligation of the person shall be deemed to be incurred in the production of income to the extent that – Interest expense.

- (a) where the debt obligation was incurred in borrowing money, the money is used during the year or was used to acquire an asset that is used during the year in the production of income; and

(b) in any other case, the debt obligation was incurred in the production of income.

Allowance for trading stock.

13. (1) For the purposes of calculating a person's income from a business for a year of assessment, in respect of trading stock of the business, the allowance calculated under subsection (2) shall be deducted.

(2) The allowance shall be calculated as –

(a) the opening value of trading stock of the business for the year of assessment; plus

(b) expenses incurred by the person during the year that are included in the cost of trading stock of the business; less

(c) the closing value of trading stock of the business for the year.

(3) The opening value of trading stock of a business for a year of assessment shall be the closing value of trading stock of the business at the end of the previous year of assessment.

(4) The closing value of trading stock of a business for a year of assessment shall be the lower of –

(a) the cost of the trading stock of the business at the end of the year; or

(b) the market value of the trading stock of the business at the end of the year.

(5) Where the closing value of trading stock is determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of subsection (4), the cost of the trading stock shall reset to that value.

14. (1) Expenses for the repair or improvement of depreciable assets and meeting the requirements of subsection (1) of section 11 of a person for any year of assessment shall be deducted irrespective of whether they are of a capital nature or not. Repairs and improvements.

(2) The deductions referred to in subsection (1) granted for a year of assessment with respect to a depreciable asset of a person –

- (a) shall not exceed –
  - (i) in the case of repair or improvement to a Class 4 depreciable asset, five percent of the written down value of the asset at the end of the previous year (paragraph 4(3) of the Fourth Schedule);
  - (ii) in all other cases, twenty percent of the written down value of the asset at the end of the previous year (paragraph 4(3) of the Fourth Schedule); and
- (b) shall be allowed in the order in which the expenses are incurred.

(3) Excess expense for which a deduction shall not be allowed as a result of the limitation in subsection (2) shall be added to the depreciation basis of the asset year (paragraph (3) of the Fourth Schedule).

15. (1) Research and development expenses and agricultural start up expenses meeting the requirements of subsection (1) of section 11 may be deducted irrespective of whether they are of a capital nature or not. Research and development expenses and agricultural start up expenses.

(2) In this section –

“agricultural start up expenses” means expenses incurred by the person in –

- (a) opening up any land for cultivation or for animal husbandry;

- (b) cultivating land referred to in paragraph (a) with plants;
- (c) the purchase of livestock or poultry to be reared on land referred to in paragraph (a); or
- (d) maintaining tanks or ponds or the clearing or preparation of any inland waters for the rearing of fish and the purchase of fish to be reared in such tank, pond or inland waters, as the case may be;

“research and development expenses” means expenses incurred by the person in –

- (a) carrying on any scientific, industrial, agricultural or any other research for the upgrading of the person’s business through any institution in Sri Lanka (or for any innovation or research relating to high value agricultural products, by the person or through any research institution in Sri Lanka); or
- (b) the process of developing the person’s business and improving business products or process, which shall be beneficial to Sri Lanka, but shall exclude expenses incurred that are otherwise included in the cost of an asset under this Act.

Capital allowances and balancing allowances.

16. (1) For the purposes of calculating a person’s income from a business for a year of assessment –

- (a) the Capital allowances referred to in subsection (2) shall be deducted; and
- (b) the balancing allowances referred to in subsection (4) shall be deducted;

(2) Capital allowances are –

- (a) granted in respect of depreciable assets owned and used by a person at the end of a year of assessment in the production of the person's income from a business; and
- (b) calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Second or Fourth Schedule to this Act.

(3) Capital allowances granted with respect to a particular year of assessment shall be taken in that year and shall not be deferred to a later year of assessment.

(4) Balancing allowances are –

- (a) made in respect of depreciable assets -
  - (i) realised during a year of assessment; and
  - (ii) in respect of which Capital allowances have been granted in that year or an earlier year; and
- (b) calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Second or Fourth Schedule to this Act.

17. (1) For the purposes of calculating a person's income from a business for a year of assessment, a loss of the person from the realisation during the year of assets and liabilities referred to in subsection (2) shall be deducted. The loss shall be calculated under Chapter IV.

Losses on realisation of business assets and liabilities.

(2) The assets and liabilities are –

- (a) capital assets of a business to the extent to which the assets were used in the production of income from the business; and

- (b) liabilities of a business to the extent to which –
- (i) in the case of a liability that is a debt obligation incurred in borrowing money, the money was used or an asset purchased with the money was used in the production of income from the business; and
  - (ii) in the case of any other liability, the liability was incurred in the production of income from the business.

Deductible amount of financial cost.

18. (1) The amount of financial costs deducted in calculating an entity's income, other than a financial institution from conducting a business or investment for a year of assessment shall not exceed the amount of financial costs attributable to financial instruments within the limit referred to in subsection (2).

(2) The limit shall be computed according to the following formula:-

$$A \times B$$

Where:

'A' is the total of the issued share capital and reserves of the entity; and

'B' is –

- (a) in the case of a manufacturing entity, the number 3; and
- (b) in the case of an entity other than a manufacturing entity, the number 4.

(3) Financial costs for which a deduction is denied as a result of subsection (1), may be carried forward and treated as incurred during any of the following six years of assessment, but only to the extent of any unused limitation in subsection (2) for the year.

(4) The Commissioner-General may specify the circumstances in which losses on financial instruments may only be set against gains on financial instruments.

(5) In this section, “reserves” exclude reserves arising from the revaluation of any asset.

19. (1) In calculating the income of a person from a business for a year of assessment, the following shall be deducted:— Business or investment losses.

- (a) an unrelieved loss of the person for the year from any other business; and
- (b) an unrelieved loss of the person for any of the previous six years of assessment from the business or any other business.

(2) The person may choose the income calculation or calculations in which an unrelieved loss or part of the loss is deducted. However, where a loss can be deducted under subsection (1) it shall be deducted.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), where a person makes a loss and if the loss were a profit it would be taxed at a reduced rate, the loss shall be deducted only in calculating income taxed at the same reduced rate, a lower reduced rate or exempt amounts. If the loss were a profit and the profit would be exempt, the loss shall be deducted only in calculating exempt amounts.

(4) The provisions of subsections from (1) to (3) shall subject to the provisions in subsection (5), apply to calculating income from an investment and unrelieved losses from an investment so that –

- (a) unrelieved losses from a business may be deducted in calculating income from an investment;
- (b) unrelieved losses from an investment shall be deducted only in calculating income from an investment.

(5) Subject to section 194, a gain from the realisation of an investment asset shall not be reduced by any loss on the disposal of another investment asset.

(6) In this section –

“loss” of a person for a year of assessment from a business or investment shall be calculated as the excess of amounts deducted in accordance with this Act (other than under this section or subsection (5) of section 25) in calculating the person’s income from the business or investment over amounts included in calculating that income; and “unrelieved loss” means the amount of a loss that has not been deducted in calculating a person’s income under this section or subsection (5) of section 25.

CHAPTER III

CALCULATION OF THE INCOME TAX

Division 1: Method of Accounting

Change in the year of assessment.

20. (1) The year of assessment means the period of twelve months commencing on the first day of April of any year and ending on the thirty first day of March in the immediately succeeding year.

(2) A trust or company may apply to the Commissioner-General for a change to its year of assessment and the Commissioner-General may, on such terms and conditions as the Commissioner-General thinks fit, approve the change. The Commissioner-General may revoke an approval if a trust or company fails to comply with a term or condition attached to the approval.

(3) A change in a trust or company's year of assessment shall result in altering the time at which the trust or company shall pay tax by instalments and on assessment under Chapter VIII.

21. (1) Unless otherwise provided by this Act, the timing of inclusions and deductions in calculating a person's income shall be made according to generally accepted accounting principles.

Method of accounting.

(2) An individual shall account for income tax purposes on a cash basis in calculating the individual's income from an employment or investment.

(3) An individual or entity conducting business shall account for income tax purposes on an accrual basis.

(4) A person shall account for income tax purposes the income from sources other than the sources referred to in subsections (2) and (3) on either a cash or accrual basis, whichever properly computes the person's income.

(5) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Commissioner-General may by written notice require a person to use a particular method of accounting or may approve an application of a person to change the person's method of accounting. The Commissioner-General shall be satisfied that the new method is necessary to properly compute the person's income.

(6) Where a person's method of accounting changes, adjustments shall be made in the year of assessment following the change so that no item is omitted or taken into account more than once.

Cash basis
accounting.

- 22. (1) Under the cash basis of accounting, a person –
- (a) derives an amount when payment is received by or made available to the person; and
  - (b) incurs an expense or other amount when it is paid by the person.

(2) For the purpose of this section, payment received in relation to an amount shall include –

- (a) used on behalf of the person either at the instruction of the person or under any law;
- (b) reinvested, accumulated or capitalised for the benefit of the person;
- (c) credited to an account, or carried to any reserve, or a sinking or insurance fund for the benefit of the person; or
- (d) constructive receipt.

accounting.

- 23. (1) Under the accrual basis of accounting, a person –
- (a) derives an amount when it is receivable by the person; and
  - (b) incurs an expense or other amount when it is payable by the person.

(2) An amount shall be receivable by a person when the person becomes entitled to receive it, even if the time for discharge of the entitlement is postponed or the entitlement is payable by instalments.

(3) An amount shall be treated as payable by the person when all the events that determine liability have occurred and the amount of the liability can be determined with reasonable accuracy, but not before economic performance with respect to the amount occurs.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), economic performance occurs –

- (a) with respect to the acquisition of services or assets, at the time the services or assets are provided;
- (b) with respect to the use of an asset, at the time the asset is used; and
- (c) in any other case, at the time the person makes payment in full satisfaction of the liability.

(5) Where in calculating income on an accrual basis an inaccuracy referred to in subsection (6) or (7) occurs –

- (a) appropriate adjustments shall be made at the time the payment is received or made to remedy the inaccuracy, or at the time of the deemed inaccuracy; and
- (b) the Commissioner-General may require the person to include the appropriate adjustment in the year of assessment in which the inaccuracy originally occurred notwithstanding the time limits specified in Part II of this Act for the amendment of assessments.

(6) An inaccuracy occurs –

- (a) when a person is calculating for a payment of a particular quantity to which the person is entitled or that the person is obliged to make; and

- (b) subsequently that entitlement or obligation being satisfied by a payment received or made by the person, as the case requires, of a different amount, including by reason of a change in currency valuations.

(7) An inaccuracy is deemed to occur when –

- (a) a person is calculating for a payment of a particular quantity that the person is obliged to make; and
- (b) subsequently that obligation is not satisfied by a payment being made by the person within three years of the obligation arising.

Reverse of amounts including bad debts.

24. (1) Where a person deducts an expense in calculating the person's income and the person later recovers the expense, the person shall, at the time of recovery, include the amount recovered in calculating the person's income.

(2) Where a person includes an amount in calculating the person's income, because of a legal obligation to do so, and the person later refunds the amount, the person shall, at the time of refund, shall deduct the amount refunded in calculating the person's income.

(3) Where, in calculating income on an accrual basis, a person deducts an expense that the person is obliged to make and the person later disclaims an obligation to incur the expense, the person shall, at the time of disclaimer, include the amount disclaimed in calculating the person's income.

(4) Subsection (5) shall be applicable where, in calculating income on an accrual basis, a person includes an amount to which the person is entitled and the person later –

- (a) disclaims an entitlement to receive the amount; or

(b) in the case where the amount constitutes a debt claim of the person, the person writes off the debt as bad.

(5) Subject to the provisions of subsection (6), the person may, at the time of disclaimer or write off, deduct the amount disclaimed or written off in calculating the person's income.

(6) Subject to section 66 (banking business activities), a person cannot disclaim the entitlement to receive an amount or write off a debt claim as bad unless the person has taken reasonable steps in pursuing payment and the person reasonably believes that the entitlement or debt claim will not be satisfied.

Division II: Long Term Contracts

25. (1) This section shall apply to a person who conducts a business, accounts for income tax purposes on an accrual basis with respect to that business and is a party to a long-term contract. Long-term contracts.

(2) Amounts to be included or deducted in calculating the person's income that relate to a long-term contract shall be taken into account on the basis of the percentage of the contract completed during each year of assessment.

(3) The percentage of completion shall be determined by comparing the total expenses allocated to the contract and incurred before the end of a year of assessment with the estimated total contract expenses as determined at the time of commencement of the contract.

(4) Subsection (5) shall apply where a long-term contract is completed and the person has an unrelieved loss attributable to that contract for the year of assessment in which the contract ended or any earlier year of assessment. An unrelieved loss of a business for a year of assessment shall be attributable to a long-term contract to the extent that there is a loss from the contract for the year.

(5) The Commissioner-General may allow the unrelieved loss to be carried back and treated as an unrelieved loss of an earlier year of assessment for the purpose of section 19. The amount carried back shall be limited to the profit, if any, from the contract for the year of assessment to which the loss is carried back.

(6) A profit or a loss from a long-term contract for a year of assessment shall be determined by comparing amounts included in income under the contract with deductions under the contract for that year.

(7) In this section –

“long-term contract” means a contract –

- (a) for manufacture, installation or construction or, in relation to each, the performance of related services; and
- (b) which is not completed within twelve months of the date on which work under the contract commences.

instruments.

26. (1) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), this section shall apply to a person who is a financial institution where, under the provisions in Division II or IV of Chapter II, that person shall include an amount or may deduct an amount in relation to a financial instrument in calculating income from a business or investment.

(2) The time at which the amount is to be included or deducted shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those principles also determine to whom the amount shall be allocated, its quantum and its character.

(3) In particular, generally accepted accounting principles apply even if they require the inclusion or deduction of an amount on a fair value accounting (mark-to-market) basis irrespective of –

- (a) the other provisions of this Division;
- (b) whether or not the amounts have yet been derived, incurred or realised; and
- (c) whether or not the amounts are of a capital or revenue nature.

(4) With the prior written approval of the Commissioner-General a person may include an amount or deduct an amount in relation to a financial instrument in calculating income from a business or investment –

- (a) when realised;
- (b) using a specified treatment relating to the character and timing of the amount, including where the financial instrument has been entered into for hedging purposes; and
- (c) where the amount is in a currency other than Sri Lankan Rupees, using a specified translation method such as requiring that the amount must be translated to Sri Lankan Rupees at the exchange rate applying between the foreign currency and Sri Lankan Rupees on the date the amount is taken into account for the purposes of this Act.

(5) The Commissioner-General may specify the extent to which this section applies to another person or class of persons.

(6) In the absence of an applicable specification by the Commissioner-General under subsection (5), an amount taken into account under this Act shall be expressed in Sri Lankan Rupees and, if an amount is in a currency other than Sri Lankan Rupees, the amount shall be translated to Sri Lankan Rupees at the Central Bank of Sri Lanka exchange rate applying between the foreign currency and Sri Lankan Rupees on the date the amount is taken into account for the purposes of this Act.

Quantifying a payment or amount.

27. (1) A payment or amount to be included or deducted in calculating income of a person shall be quantified in the amount, as specified by the Commissioner-General or, in any other case, according to market value.

(2) The amount of a payment shall be quantified without reduction for any tax withheld from the payment under Division II of Chapter VIII of this Act.

(3) Market value shall be determined –

- (a) with due regard for the arm's length standard referred to in section 33; but
- (b) in the case of an asset, without regard to any restriction on transfer of the asset or the fact that the asset is not otherwise convertible into a payment of money or money's worth.

Indirect payments.

28. (1) Subsection (2) shall apply where a person may indirectly benefit from a payment or direct who is to be the payee of a payment and the payer intends the payment to benefit the person.

(2) The Commissioner-General may, by notice in writing served on the person –

- (a) treat a person as the payee of the payment;
- (b) treat a person as the payer of the payment; or

- (c) treat the person as the payee of the payment and as making an equal payment to the person who would be considered the payee of the payment.

(3) In this section, an intention of the payer of a payment includes an intention of an associate of the payer or a third person under an arrangement with the payer or with an associate of the payer.

29. (1) In calculating a person's income from an investment that is jointly owned with another person, amounts to be included and deducted shall be apportioned among the joint owners in proportion to their interests in the investment. Jointly owned investments.

(2) Where the interests of joint owners cannot be ascertained they shall be treated as equal.

30. Where a person or an associate of the person derives an amount which compensates for or represents recovery of – Compensation and recovery payments.

- (a) income or an amount to be included in calculating income, which the person expects or expected to derive; or
- (b) a loss or an amount to be deducted in calculating income, which the person has incurred or which the person expects or is expected to incur, subject to section 24, the compensation amount shall be included in calculating the income of the person and takes its character from the amount compensated for.

31. (1) Payments made by a person under a finance lease or in acquiring an asset under an instalment sale shall be treated as interest and a repayment of capital under a loan made by the lessor or seller to the lessee or buyer, as the case requires. Annuities, instalment sales and finance leases.

(2) Payments made to a person under an annuity shall be treated as interest and a repayment of capital under a loan made by the person to the payer of the annuity.

(3) The interest and repayment of capital under subsections (1) and (2) shall be calculated as if the loan were a blended loan with interest compounded six-monthly or such other period as the Commissioner-General may specify.

(4) Section 49 provides further provisions regarding transfers under finance leases and instalment sales.

(5) The Commissioner-General may specify any other forms of financing that relates to interest substitutes.

(6) For the purposes of this section –

“annuity” does not include an amount payable –

- (a) under an order of court by way of payment of alimony or maintenance; or
- (b) to a spouse under a duly executed deed of separation;

“blended loan” means a loan –

- (a) under which payments by the borrower represent in part a payment of interest and in part a repayment of capital;
- (b) where the interest part is calculated on capital outstanding at the time of each payment; and
- (c) where the rate of interest is uniform over the term of the loan;

“finance lease” means a lease where –

- (a) the lease agreement provides for transfer of ownership following the end of the lease term or the lessee has an option to acquire the asset after expiry of the lease term for a fixed or presupposed price;

- (b) the lease term exceeds seventy five per cent of the useful life of the asset;
- (c) the estimated market value of the asset after expiry of the lease term is less than twenty per cent of its market value at the start of the lease;
- (d) in the case of a lease that commences before the last twenty five percent of the useful life of the asset, the present value of the minimum lease payments equals or exceeds ninety per cent of the market value of the asset at the start of the lease term; or
- (e) the asset is custom-made for the lessee and after expiry of the lease term the asset will not be of practical use to any person other than the lessee;

“instalment sale” excludes a sale that provides for commercial periodic interest payable on sales proceeds outstanding; and “lease term” includes an additional period for which the lessee has an option to renew a lease.

32. Income arising from any Islamic financial transaction shall be subject to tax in a similar manner as equivalent in substance to non-Islamic financial transactions.

Islamic financial transactions.

Arm’s length standard and arrangements between associates.

(2) The arm’s length standard requires associated persons to quantify, characterise, apportion and allocate amounts to be included or deducted in calculating income to reflect arrangements that would have been made between independent persons.

(3) The Commissioner-General may by publication in the Gazette specify the manner in which arm's length agreements may be entered into for the purpose of determining the arm's length price.

(4) Where, in the opinion of the Commissioner-General, a person fails to comply with subsection (1), the Commissioner-General may make adjustments in compliance with subsection (1) and the Commissioner-General may –

- (a) re-characterise an arrangement made between associated persons, including re-characterising debt financing as equity financing;
- (b) re-characterise the source and type of any income, loss, amount or payment; and
- (c) apportion and allocate expenditure, based on turnover.

Income splitting.

34. (1) Where a person attempts to split income with another person, the Commissioner-General may prevent any reduction in tax payable by issuing a notice in writing.

(2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) may contain amounts to be included or deducted in calculating the income of each person or re-characterise the source and type of any income, loss, amount or payment.

(3) A reference to a person attempting to split income includes a reference to an arrangement between associated persons –

- (a) for the transfer of an asset (directly or indirectly), including the transfer of an amount to be derived;
- (b) where the transferor retains any legal or implicit right to benefit (currently or in the future) from the asset; and

- (c) where one of the reasons for the transfer is to lower tax payable by any person.

(4) Where a spouse receives income for services rendered in any business carried on or exercised –

- (a) by the other spouse; or
- (b) by a partnership of which that other spouse is a partner, the income shall be included in the income of the spouse who carries on the business or that partnership of which that other spouse is a partner.

35. (1) This section shall apply where the Commissioner-General is satisfied that – Tax avoidance schemes.

- (a) a scheme has been entered into or carried out;
- (b) a person has obtained a tax benefit in connection with the scheme; and
- (c) having regard to the substance of the scheme, it can be concluded that a person, or one of the persons, who entered into or carried out the scheme did so for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling the person referred to in paragraph (b) to obtain a tax benefit.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the Commissioner-General may determine the tax liability of the person who obtained the tax benefit as if the scheme had not been entered into or carried out, or as if a reasonable alternative to entering into or carrying out the scheme would have instead been entered into or carried out, or that any transaction which reduces or would have the effect of reducing the amount of tax payable by any person is artificial or fictitious and can make compensating adjustments to the tax liability of any other person affected by the scheme.

(3) Where a determination or adjustment is made, the Commissioner-General shall issue an assessment giving effect to the determination or adjustment.

(4) The assessment made under subsection (3) shall be served within five years from the last day of the year of assessment to which the determination or adjustment relates.

(5) For the purposes of this section -

“scheme” includes any course of action, trust, grant, agreement, arrangement, understanding, promise, plan, proposal or undertaking, whether express or implied and whether or not enforceable;

“tax benefit” means –

- (a) a reduction in a liability to pay tax, including on account of a deduction, credit, offset or rebate;
- (b) a postponement of a liability to pay tax;
- (c) any other advantage arising because of a delay in payment of tax; or
- (d) anything that causes –
  - (i) an amount of gross revenue to be exempt income or otherwise not subject to tax; or
  - (ii) an amount that would otherwise be subject to tax not to be taxed.

CHAPTER IV

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Division I: Calculation of Gains and Losses

36. (1) A person's gain from the realisation of an asset or liability shall be the amount by which the sum of the consideration received for the asset or liability exceeds the cost of the asset or liability at the time of realisation. Calculating gains and losses.

(2) The loss of a person from the realisation of an asset or liability shall be the amount by which the cost of the asset or liability exceeds the sum of the consideration received for the asset or liability at the time of realisation.

(3) A gain made by a person on the realisation of an investment asset shall be reduced by any part of the gain that is included in calculating the person's income from an employment or business.

(4) Where an asset or liability owned by a person is used in the production of two or more sources of income, the cost of and consideration received for the asset shall be apportioned between each source according to the market value of the parts used to produce each source.

37. (1) Subject to this Act, the cost of an asset of a person shall be the sum of – Cost of an asset.

- (a) expenditure incurred by the person in acquiring the asset including, where relevant, expenditure on construction, manufacture or production of the asset;
- (b) expenditure incurred by the person in altering, improving, maintaining or repairing the asset;
- (c) incidental expenditure incurred by the person in acquiring and realising the asset; and

(d) income amounts referred to in subsection (2).

(2) An income amount shall be –

- (a) an amount required by Division II of Chapter II to be directly included in calculating the person's income or that is an exempt amount or final withholding payment of the person;
- (b) where the treatment in paragraph (a) results from the person acquiring the asset or another person incurring expenditure of the type mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) on behalf of the person.

(3) The cost of an asset shall not include consumption expenditure, excluded expenditure and expenditure to the extent to which it is deducted in calculating a person's income or included in the cost of another asset.

(4) In this section, "incidental expenditure" incurred by a person in acquiring or realising an asset shall include –

- (a) advertising expenditure, transfer taxes, duties and other expenditure of transfer;
- (b) expenditure of establishing, preserving or defending ownership of the asset; and
- (c) remuneration for the services of an accountant, agent, auctioneer, broker, consultant, legal advisor, surveyor or valuer relating to expenditure referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

Consideration received.

38. (1) Subject to this Act, consideration received for an asset of a person at a particular time shall be –

- (a) amounts received or receivable by the person for the asset, including the fair market value of any consideration in kind determined at the time of realisation;

- (b) amounts derived by the person in respect of owning the asset including –
  - (i) amounts derived from altering or decreasing the value of the asset; and
  - (ii) amounts derived from the asset including by way of covenant to repair or otherwise; and
- (c) amounts derived by the person or an entitlement for the person to derive an amount in the future in respect of realising the asset.

(2) The consideration received for the realisation of an asset shall include the consideration for the grant of an option in relation to the asset, only if the person has not been subject to tax in respect of any income or gain made on the grant of the option.

(3) The consideration received for an asset shall not include an exempt amount, a final withholding payment or, other than in the case of trading stock, an amount to be directly included in calculating the person's income under Division II of Chapter II.

39. Subject to this Act, a person who owns an asset shall be treated as realising the asset – Realisation.

- (a) when that person parts with ownership of the asset, including when the asset is sold, exchanged, transferred, distributed, cancelled, redeemed, destroyed, lost, expired, expropriated or surrendered;
- (b) in the case of an asset of a person who ceases to exist, including by reason of the death of an individual, immediately before the person ceases to exist;

- (c) in the case of an asset other than trading stock or a depreciable asset, where the sum of consideration received from owning the asset exceeds the cost of the asset;
- (d) in the case of an asset that is a debt claim owned by a person, the person reasonably believes the debt claim will not be satisfied, where the person has taken reasonable steps in pursuing the debt claim and the person writes the debt off as bad;
- (e) in the case of trading stock, a depreciable asset, a capital asset of a business or an investment asset, immediately before the person begins to employ the asset in such a way that it ceases to be an asset of any of those types; and
- (f) in the circumstances referred to in section 70 (change of residence).

Liabilities.

40. (1) The costs of and consideration received for a liability of a person shall be determined in accordance with sections 37 and 38 as though –

- (a) a reference to an asset were a reference to a liability;
- (b) expenditure incurred in realising the liability is included in the costs of the liability; and
- (c) amounts derived in respect of incurring the liability are included in the consideration received for the liability.

(2) Subject to this Act, a person who owes a liability shall be treated as realising the liability –

- (a) when the person ceases to owe the liability, including when the liability is transferred, satisfied, cancelled, released or expired;

- (b) in the case of a liability of a person who ceases to exist, including by reason of the death of an individual, immediately before the person ceases to exist; and
- (c) in the circumstances referred to in section 70 (change of residence).

(3) Subject to any regulations, the provisions of Division II shall apply, with any necessary adaptations, to liabilities in a manner similar to that in which they apply to assets.

41. (1) Subject to section 24, where a person includes expenditure in the cost of an asset or liability and later recovers the expenditure, the person shall include the amount recovered in the consideration received for the asset or liability, as the case requires.

Reversal,
quantification
and compensation of amounts.

(2) Subject to section 24 where a person includes an amount derived as consideration received for an asset or liability and, later refunds the amount, the person may include the amount refunded in the cost of the asset.

(3) Where a person or an associate of a person derives an amount which compensates for or represents –

- (a) recovery of actual or expected costs or expected but not received consideration for an asset or liability; or
- (b) a loss in value of an asset or increase in a liability, subject to any other adjustment made under this Act, the compensation amount shall be included in the consideration received for the asset or liability, as the case requires.

Division II: Realisation of assets

Cost of trading stock and other fungible assets.

42. (1) For the purposes of determining the cost of trading stock of a business of a person –

- (a) no amount shall be included in respect of the repair, improvement or depreciation of depreciable assets; and
- (b) subject to the provisions of paragraph (a), the absorption-cost method shall be used for amounts that are eligible to be included in the cost of the trading stock (section 37).

(2) The owner of an asset referred to in subsection (3) may elect for the cost of the asset to be determined according to the first-in-first-out method or the average-cost method. Once chosen, the method shall only be changed with the written permission of the Commissioner-General.

(3) The assets referred to in subsection (2) shall be trading stock or any other type of asset specified by the Commissioner-General that are fungible and not readily identifiable.

(4) In this section –

“absorption-cost method” means the generally accepted accounting principle under which the cost of trading stock is the sum of direct asset costs, direct labour costs and factory overhead costs;

“average-cost method” means the generally accepted accounting principle under which costs are allocated to fungible assets of a particular type owned by a person based on a weighted average cost of all assets of that type owned by the person;

“direct labour costs” means expenditure incurred by a person on labour that directly relates to the production of trading stock;

“direct asset costs” means expenditure incurred by a person in acquiring any asset or assets that constitutes trading stock or becomes an integral part of trading stock produced;

“factory overhead costs” means all expenditure incurred by a person in producing trading stock except direct labour and direct asset costs; and

“first-in-first-out method” means the generally accepted accounting principle under which costs are allocated to a fungible asset of a particular type owned by a person based on the assumption that assets of that type owned by the person are realised in the order of their acquisition.

43. Where a person realises an asset in any of the manners set out in paragraphs (c) to (f) of section 39 – Realisation with retention of asset.

- (a) the person shall be treated as having parted with ownership of the asset and deriving an amount in respect of the realisation equal to the market value of the asset at the time of the realisation; and
- (b) the person shall be treated as reacquiring the asset and incurring expenditure of the amount referred to in paragraph (a) in the acquisition.

44. Where on death or as part of a divorce settlement or bona fide separation agreement an individual transfers, an asset to a spouse or former spouse and an election for this section to apply is made by the spouse or former spouse in writing – Transfer of asset to spouse or former spouse.

- (a) the individual shall be treated as deriving an amount in respect of the realisation equal to the net cost of the asset immediately before the realisation; and

- (a) where the rights or obligations are permanent, the one person shall be treated as realising part of the asset, but shall not be treated as acquiring any new asset or liability; and
- (b) where the rights or obligations are temporary or contingent, the person shall not be treated as realising part of the asset or liability, but as acquiring a new asset or incurring a new liability, as the case requires.

(2) Rights or obligations shall be considered permanent when they are likely to last for more than fifty years.

49. (1) Where a person grants a mortgage (legal or equitable) or similar form of security over an asset to secure a debt owed to another person –

Transfer by way of security, finance lease or instalment sale.

- (a) the first person shall not be treated as realising the asset or any part of it, but shall be treated as still owning the asset and as having incurred a liability being the secured debt; and
- (b) the other person shall not be treated as acquiring the asset or any part of it, but shall be treated only as owning the secured debt.

(2) Where an asset is leased under a finance lease, the lessor shall be treated as transferring ownership of the asset to the lessee.

(3) Subject to section 46 where a person transfers an asset under an instalment sale or, under a finance lease under subsection (2) –

- (a) the person shall be treated as deriving an amount in respect of the transfer equal to the market value of the asset immediately before the transfer; and
- (b) the person who acquires the asset shall be treated as incurring expenditure of the amount referred to in paragraph (a) in acquiring the asset.

(4) Where a lessee under a finance lease returns the asset to the lessor before ownership passes to the lessee (except the transaction referred to in subsection (2)) the lessee shall be treated as transferring ownership of the asset back to the lessor.

(5) In this section, “finance lease” and “instalment sale” shall have the same meaning as in section 31.

Payment of tax on gains from realisation of an asset.

50. The manner and the procedure relating to the payment of tax on the gain from realisation of an asset may be specified by the Commissioner- General.

Apportionment of costs and consideration received.

51. (1) Where a person acquires one or more assets by way of transfer at the same time or as part of the same arrangement, the expenditure incurred in acquiring each asset shall be apportioned between the assets according to their market values at the time of acquisition.

(2) Where a person realises one or more assets by way of transfer at the same time or as part of the same arrangement, the amounts derived in realising each asset shall be apportioned between the assets according to their market values at the time of realisation.

(3) Where a person who owns an asset realises part of it, the net cost of the asset immediately before the realisation shall be apportioned between the part of the asset realised and the part retained according to their market values immediately after the realisation.

- (b) amounts derived and expenditure incurred by a trust or a trustee (other than as a bare agent or for an absolutely entitled beneficiary) shall be treated as derived or incurred by the trust and not any other person, regardless of whether or not the amount is derived or incurred on behalf of another person and whether or not any other person is entitled to such an amount or income constituted by such an amount.

(2) A beneficiary of a trust (instead of the trust) shall be liable to tax on the income of the trust to which that beneficiary is presently entitled for the relevant year of assessment of the trust ending on the last day of or during the year of assessment and –

- (a) amounts derived and expenditure incurred by a trust or a trustee shall be treated as derived or incurred by the beneficiary and not the trust or trustee or any other person;
- (b) each amount shall retain its character as to type and source;
- (c) each amount shall be treated as an amount derived or expenditure incurred, respectively, by the beneficiary at the end of the year of assessment of the trust;
- (d) each amount shall be allocated to the beneficiaries proportionately to each beneficiary's share, unless the Commissioner-General, by notice in writing and for good cause, directs otherwise; and
- (e) tax paid under this Act and foreign income tax paid or treated as paid by the trust with respect to the trust income shall be allocated to the beneficiaries at the time trust income is treated as derived by the beneficiaries under paragraph (c) proportionately to each beneficiary's share, and treated as paid by them.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) –

- (a) a beneficiary shall be presently entitled to the income of a trust if the beneficiary has a vested and indefeasible interest in the income and an immediate right to demand payment of the income from the trustee of the trust; and
- (b) provisions of subsection (2) shall not apply to a trust to the extent that the trust's taxable income include a gain from the realisation of an investment asset.

(4) Assets owned and liabilities owed by a trust or a trustee (other than as a bare agent or for an absolutely entitled beneficiary) shall be treated as owned or owed by the trust and not any other person.

(5) Separate calculations of income shall be made for separate trusts regardless of whether they have the same trustees.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Act, arrangements between a trust and its trustees or beneficiaries shall be recognised.

58. (1) Distributions –

Taxation of beneficiaries.

- (a) of a resident trust shall be exempt in the hands of the trust's beneficiaries; and
- (b) of a non-resident trust shall be included in calculating the income of the beneficiaries of the trust, except to the extent that the distribution represents an amount that is subject to tax to the trust or trustee under subsection (1) of section 57 or a beneficiary under subsection (2) of section 57.

(2) Gains on disposal of the interest of a beneficiary in a trust shall be included in calculating the income of the beneficiary.

59. (1) For the purposes of this Act, every unit trust or every mutual fund that does not conduct an eligible investment business shall be deemed to be a company resident in Sri Lanka and the provisions of this Act relating to companies resident in Sri Lanka shall apply.

Taxation of unit trusts.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) –

- (a) a “unit” in any unit trust or a mutual fund shall be deemed to be a share in that company;

- (b) a unit holder in any unit trust or mutual fund shall be deemed to be a shareholder in that company;
- (c) the income derived by or which arose from or accrued to the benefit of, the trustee of any unit trust or the custodian of any mutual fund from any property subject to that unit trust or mutual fund or from any business carried on by such trustee or such custodian for or on behalf of, that unit trust or mutual fund shall be deemed to be the income of that company;
- (d) any distribution, in any manner whatsoever, of the income of any unit trust or mutual fund to its unit holders shall be deemed to be a dividend distributed to the shareholders of that company; and
- (e) the paid up value of any unit in any unit trust or mutual fund shall be deemed to be the paid up value of any share in that company.

(3) Any sum appropriated or paid by way of remuneration to the manager or the trustee of any unit trust or to the manager or custodian of any mutual fund out of the funds of that unit trust or mutual fund shall, for the purposes of section 11 be deemed to be an expense incurred by that company in the production of its income.

(4) Where this section applies, section 57 shall not apply.

Division IV: Companies

Taxation of companies.

60. (1) A company shall be liable to tax separately from its shareholders.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, all business activities of a company shall be treated as conducted in the course of a single company business.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, arrangements between a company and its managers or shareholders shall be recognised.

61. (1) Dividends –

Taxation of shareholders.

- (a) distributed by a resident company shall be taxed on the company's shareholders; and
- (b) distributed by a non-resident company shall be included in calculating the income of the shareholders.

(2) Gains on disposal of shares in a company shall be included in calculating the income of the shareholder.

62. (1) A non-resident person who carries on business in Sri Lanka through a Sri Lankan permanent establishment shall pay tax on the remitted profits earned within the year of assessment.

Remittance tax.

(2) A non-resident person who has earned remitted profits under subsection (1) shall pay a final tax on the gross amount of the remitted profits to the Commissioner-General in accordance with the rate set out in the First Schedule to this Act on or before the thirtieth day succeeding the date of making such remittances.

(3) In this section, "remitted profits" means amounts remitted or retained abroad out of the profits and income of the non-resident person that are subject to income tax in Sri Lanka, and any amount received outside Sri Lanka by or on behalf of the non-resident person from conducting business in Sri Lanka that is subject to income tax in Sri Lanka, excluding dividends paid by a resident company to the non-resident person.

Division V: Entities

Asset dealings between entities and members.

63. Subject to section 46, where an asset is realised by way of transfer of ownership of the asset by an entity to one of its members or vice versa –

- (a) the transferor shall be treated as deriving an amount in respect of the realisation equal to the market value of the asset immediately before the realisation; and
- (b) the transferee shall be treated as incurring expenditure of the amount referred to in paragraph (a) in the acquisition.

Change in control.

64. (1) When the underlying ownership of an entity changes by more than fifty percent as compared with that ownership at any time during the previous three years, the entity, after the change, shall not be permitted to –

- (a) deduct financial costs carried forward under subsection (3) of section 18 that were incurred by the entity prior to the change;
- (b) deduct a loss under subsection (1) of section 19 that was incurred by the entity prior to the change;
- (c) in a case where the entity has, prior to the change, included an amount in calculating income in terms of subsections (2), (4) or (5) of section 24, claim a deduction under those provisions after the change; or
- (d) carry back a loss under subsection (5) of section 25 that was incurred after the change to a year of assessment before the change.

(2) Where a change in ownership of the type referred to in subsection (1) occurs during a year of assessment of an entity, the parts of the year of assessment before and after the change shall be treated as separate years of assessment.

(3) This section shall not apply to a partnership or company that conducts the same business after a change as it conducted before the change for a period of two years after the change.

CHAPTER VI

SPECIAL INDUSTRIES

Division I: Petroleum Operations

65. (1) Any individual or entity who or which has entered into an agreement as a contractor or sub-contractor under the Petroleum Resources Act, No. 26 of 2003 shall be deemed to be resident in Sri Lanka over the term of such contract or sub contract, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Act. Petroleum operations.

(2) The turnover from exports and local sales of petroleum exploited under any Petroleum Resources Agreement referred to in subsection (1), shall be determined on the basis of accepted commercial practices and be subject to any specific provisions in the Petroleum Resources Agreements, entered into under the Petroleum Resources Act, No. 26 of 2003.

(3) The income, gains and profits from the business of petroleum exploitation under any Petroleum Resources Agreement referred to in subsection (1), shall be ascertained after allowing the following deductions in addition to other allowable deductions under the provisions of this Act, and shall notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provision of this Act, be chargeable with income tax at the appropriate rate set out in the First Schedule to this Act, provided that the same item of expenditure shall not be deducted more than once:-

- (a) payments made to service sub-contractors for conducting petroleum operations;

- (b) one hundred percent of the cost of acquisition of any plant, machinery or equipment used for the recovery of petroleum resources, instead of the capital allowances under section 16. Any proceeds realised on the sale of such assets shall be considered as a receipt from such business;
- (c) interest expenses;
- (d) royalty paid on petroleum resources recovered under any Petroleum Resources Agreement;
- (e) all expenses on the development and production of petroleum, including capital expenses, where a deduction under paragraph (b) above has not been granted;
- (f) in the year of first commercial production, all costs incurred by any contractor in the exploration for unsuccessful wells in exploration blocks under any Petroleum Resources Agreement, up to and including such year of first commercial production;
- (g) any costs incurred by any contractor in the exploration for unsuccessful wells in exploration blocks under any Petroleum Resources Agreement in any year of assessment, after the first commercial production.

Division II: Financial Institutions and Insurance Entities

Banking
business.

66. (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person's activities in conducting a banking business shall be treated as a business separate from any other activity of the person and the person's income or loss from the business for a year of assessment shall be calculated separately.

(2) Where a person conducting a banking business makes specific provision for a debt claim in accordance with the relevant directives made by the Central Bank of Sri Lanka, the Commissioner-General may specify the extent to which that provision shall be deductible, but a person shall not deduct such provision unless such directives are complied with.

(3) In this section, “banking business” means the banking business of a financial institution.

67. (1) In the case of a person engaged in the business of life insurance, whether mutual or proprietary, the gains and profits from the business on which tax is payable shall be ascertained by taking the aggregate of—business.

- (a) the surplus distributed to share holders from the life insurance policy holders fund as certified by the Appointed Actuary functioning within the Regulation of the Insurance Industry Act, No. 43 of 2000; and
- (b) the investment income of the share holder fund less any expenses incurred in the production of such income, subject to the deductions claimable under section 19 in arriving at the income from the business.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the surplus distributed to a life insurance policy holder who shares the profits of a person engaged in the business of life insurance in a given year, as provided in the Regulation of Insurance Industry Act, No. 43 of 2000, shall be deemed as gains and profits of that person from the business and subject to tax accordingly.

(3) The profits of a non-resident company whether mutual or proprietary, from the business of insurance (other than life insurance) shall be ascertained by taking the gross premiums from insurance business in Sri Lanka (less any premiums returned to the insured and premiums paid on reinsurance) and deducting therefrom a reserve from unexpired risks at the percentage adopted by the company in relation to its operations as a whole for such risks at the end of the period for which the profits shall be ascertained, and adding thereto a reserve similarly calculated for unexpired risks outstanding at the commencement of such period, and from the net amount so arrived at, deducting the actual losses (less the amount recovered in respect thereof under reinsurance), the agency expenses in Sri Lanka and a fair proportion of the expenses of the head office of the company, due account being taken in each case by set-off against such expenses, of any income or profits other than premiums.

(4) Where the Commissioner-General is satisfied that by reason of the limited extent of the business transacted in Sri Lanka by a non-resident insurance company, it would be unreasonable to require the company to furnish the particulars necessary for the application of subsections (1) and (2), the Commissioner-General may notwithstanding the provisions of such subsections, permit the profits of the company to be ascertained by reference to such proportion of the total profits and income of the company as is equal to the proportion which its premiums from insurance business in Sri Lanka bears to its total premiums, or on any other basis considered equitable in all the circumstances of the case.

Division III: Non-Governmental Organizations and Charitable Institutions

Division II: Double Taxation Agreements and Mutual Administrative Assistance Agreements

75. (1) The Minister may give effect to any double taxation agreement or mutual administrative assistance agreement with a foreign government or governments that has been approved by Parliament and published in the Gazette. Double taxation agreements and mutual administrative assistance agreements.

(2) Subject to the provision of subsection (3), where there is any conflict between the terms of a double taxation agreement having legal effect in Sri Lanka and the provisions of this Act, the double taxation agreement prevails.

(3) Subject to the provision of subsection (4), where a double taxation agreement provides that any income from a Sri Lankan source is exempt or excluded from tax, or the application of the agreement results in a reduction in the rate of Sri Lankan tax, the benefit of that exemption, exclusion, or reduction shall not be available to a body that, for the purposes of the agreement, is a resident of the other contracting state when fifty percent or more of the underlying ownership or control of that body is held by an individual or individuals who are not residents of that other contracting state for the purposes of the agreement.

(4) Provision of subsection (3) shall not apply if the resident of the other contracting state is a company listed on a stock exchange in that other contracting state.

(5) In this section –

“double taxation agreement” means an international agreement relating to the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion; and “mutual administrative assistance agreement” means a tax information exchange agreement or other international agreement for mutual administrative assistance in relation to taxation matters.

Division III: Transfer Pricing

Profits and income or loss from international transactions between associates.

76. (1) Any income, gains and profits arising in, derived or accruing from, or any loss incurred by any person in Sri Lanka engaged in any international transaction entered into with its associated enterprises shall be ascertained having regard to the arm’s length price.

(2) For the purpose of this section –

(a) any business organization that has a permanent establishment in Sri Lanka shall be deemed to be a person for the ascertainment of the income, gains or profits arising in or derived from or any loss incurred in Sri Lanka from such permanent establishment;

(b) “permanent establishment” –

(i) in relation to a country with which an agreement has been entered into on avoidance of double taxation means, a permanent establishment defined in an agreement for the relief of double taxation where an agreement is in force between the government of Sri Lanka and the government of any territory in which any person and their agencies, branches or establishments in Sri Lanka is resident; or

- (ii) in relation to a country with which an agreement has not been entered into on avoidance of double taxation, includes any business connection or a fixed place of business through which the business of the enterprise is wholly or partly carried out irrespective of the number of days of such business carried out in Sri Lanka;
- (c) any income, gains or profits arising, derived or accruing from, or any loss incurred in any transaction between a permanent establishment and its head office or other related branches in Sri Lanka, in which case the permanent establishment shall be treated as a distinct and separate entity from its head office and related branches, shall be ascertained having regard to the arm's length price; and
- (d) "international transaction" means a transaction between two or more associated enterprises, either one or both of whom are non-residents, in the nature of purchase, sale or lease of tangible or intangible property, or provision of services, lending or borrowing of money or any other transaction having a bearing on the income, gain or profits, losses or assets of such associated enterprises, and includes any allocation or apportionment of, or any contribution to any cost or expense incurred or to be incurred in connection with a benefit, service or facility provided or to be provided to any one or more of such associated enterprises under any mutual agreement or arrangement between two or more such associated enterprises.

Any transaction entered into by an enterprise with a person, other than an associated enterprise shall, for the purposes of subsection (1) be deemed to be an international transaction entered into between two associated enterprises, if there exists a prior agreement between such enterprises and other person and, by which the terms of such transaction are determined in substance between such enterprises and other person which results in the reduction of or would have the effect of reducing the amount of tax payable.

Without prejudice to the generality of the provision of this subsection, the allowance for any expense or interest arising from an international transaction shall also be determined having regard to the arm's length price.

(3) (a) Where it appears to the Transfer Pricing Officer that the income, gain or profits or the loss referred to in subsection (1), have not been ascertained having regard to the arm's length price, he may initiate a transfer pricing audit.

(b) Where it appears to an Assistant Commissioner in the course of his audit that the income, gain, profits or the loss referred to in subsection (1) have not been ascertained having regard to the arm's length price he shall refer to the Transfer Pricing Officer for the determination of arm's length price and if the Transfer Pricing Officer decides to proceed with a transfer pricing audit he shall initiate such transfer pricing audit.

(c) When determining the arm's length price, the Transfer Pricing Officer may in writing addressed to the person referred to in subsection (1) require him to prove to the satisfaction of the Transfer Pricing Officer, that such income, gain or profits or such loss, as the case may be, has in fact been ascertained having regard to the arm's length price. Where such person fails to so prove, the Transfer Pricing Officer may determine, the arm's length price.

(d) For the purposes of subsection (1), a Transfer Pricing Officer may give notice in writing to any person requiring him to furnish within the period specified in such notice, information in relation to any transactions between such person and any other persons.

(e) The arm's length price shall be determined in accordance with the arm's length principle and on the basis of the application of the most appropriate method as specified for that purpose.

(f) After determining arm's length price of the cases initiated under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), Transfer Pricing Officer shall prepare a preliminary order determining the arm's length price and refer to the Technical Review Committee which is appointed by the Deputy Commissioner-General of the subject of transfer pricing, for review.

(g) The Technical Review Committee shall review the determined arm's length price in the preliminary order and shall confirm, reduce or enhance the arm's length price and refer to the Transfer Pricing Officer –

- (i) a final order, if all the members of the Committee are in agreement; or
- (ii) an interim order in any other circumstances where all the members of the Committee are not in agreement.

(h) Transfer Pricing Officer shall communicate the final order or the interim order as the case may be to such person.

(i) A person, who is dissatisfied with the interim order may communicate his dissatisfaction to the Dispute Resolution Panel referred to in section 78 of this Act and the Dispute Resolution Panel shall issue a final order under subsection (4) of section 78.

(j) Where person or partner of a partnership has not communicated their dissatisfaction on an interim order received to the Dispute Resolution Panel, the interim order shall be deemed to be a final order.

(k) The Transfer Pricing Officer shall, subject to the provisions of section 135, assess the amount of income, gain or profits and issue assessment in accordance with the final order of the Technical Review Committee or the Dispute Resolution Panel as the case may be.

(l) Such person or partner of a partnership who is aggrieved by such assessment made based on the final order, may within thirty days of the notice of assessment make an appeal to the Commissioner-General under Chapter XIII.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply in a case where the computation of income under subsection (2) has the effect of reducing the income, gain or profits chargeable to tax or increasing the loss, as the case may be, computed on the basis of entries made in the books of account in respect of any year of assessment in which the international transaction was entered into.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other section of this Act or any other law, no exemption or tax benefit provided under any of the provisions of this Act or any other law, shall be granted in respect of the amount of income, gain or profits by which the total income, gain or profits of the associated enterprises is increased after the computation of income, gain or profits under this section and in accordance with the arm's length price.

(6) An advance pricing agreement may be entered into between any person and the Commissioner-General in respect of arm's length price for the purposes of this section in the manner that may be specified.

(7) The determination of arm's length price referred to in subsection (1) may be subject to safe harbor rules specified by the Commissioner-General.

77. (1) Any income, gain or profits arising in, derived or accruing from, or any loss incurred in by any person in Sri Lanka engaged in any transaction, other than transactions referred to in subsection (1) of section 76 entered into with its associated enterprises shall be ascertained having regard to the arm's length price.

Profits and income or loss from transactions between associates.

(2)(a) Where it appears to the Assistant Commissioner in the course of his audit, the income, gains or profits or the loss referred to in subsection (1), have not been ascertained having regard to the arm's length price, he may initiate a transfer pricing audit.

(b) When determining the arm's length price the Assistant Commissioner may in writing address to the person, referred to in subsection (1) and require him to prove to the satisfaction of the Assistant Commissioner, that such profits and income or such loss, as the case may be, has in fact been ascertained having regard to the arm's length price. Where such person fails to so prove, the Assistant Commissioner may determine, the arm's length price.

(c) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Assistant Commissioner may give notice in writing to any person requiring him to furnish within the period specified in such notice, information in relation to any transaction between such person and any other person.

(d) The arm's length price shall be determined in accordance with the arm's length principle and on the basis of application of the most appropriate method, as specified for that purpose.

- (e) After determining arm's length price, the Assistant Commissioner shall prepare a preliminary order and refer to the Technical Review Committee, for review.
- (f) The Technical Review Committee shall review the determined arm's length price in the preliminary order and shall confirm, reduce or enhance the arm's length price and refer to the Assistant Commissioner -
  - (i) a final order, where all the members of the Committee are in agreement; or
  - (ii) a interim order in any other circumstances where all the members of the Committee are not in agreement.
- (g) Assistant Commissioner shall communicate the final order or the interim order as the case may be to such person or partner of such partnership.
- (h) A person, who is dissatisfied with the interim order may communicate his dissatisfaction to the Dispute Resolution Panel and the Dispute Resolution Panel shall issue a final order under subsection (4) of section 78.
- (i) Where a person has not communicated his dissatisfaction on an interim order, the interim order is deemed to be a final order.
- (j) The Assistant Commissioner shall subject to the provisions of section 135 assess the amount of income, gain or profits and issue assessment in accordance with the final order of the Technical Review Committee or the Dispute Resolution Panel as the case may be.

- (k) If such a person who is aggrieved by such assessment made based on the final order, may, within thirty days of the notice of assessment make an appeal to the Commissioner-General.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply in a case where the computation of income, gain or profits under subsection (2) has the effect of reducing the income, gain or profits chargeable to tax or increasing the loss, as the case may be, computed on the basis of entries made in the books of account in respect of any year of assessment in which the transaction was entered into.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in any other section of this Act or any written law, no exemption or tax benefit provided under any of the provisions of this Act or any written law, shall be granted in respect of the amount of income, gain or profits by which the total income, gain or profits of the associated enterprises is increased after the computation of income, gain or profits under this section and in accordance with the arm's length price.

(5) The determination of arm's length price referred to in subsection (1) may be subject to safe harbor rules.

For the purpose of sections 76 and 77 –

- (a) “a person” –
  - (i) shall be an associated enterprise of another enterprise, if one person participates directly or indirectly or through one or more intermediaries in the management, control or capital of the other person; or
  - (ii) shall be deemed to be an associated enterprise of another person if one person participates directly or indirectly or through one or more intermediaries in the management, control or capital, in such manner or to such extent as may be specified;

- (b) a person referred to in paragraph (a) shall include a permanent establishment;
- (c) “Transfer Pricing Officer” means any officer of the Inland Revenue Department designated by the Commissioner-General as a Transfer Pricing Officer;
- (d) “safe harbor” means circumstances in which the Commissioner-General may propose a simplification measure that shall accept the transfer price declared by a person under certain conditions;
- (e) “Arm’s Length Price” means for the purpose of ascertaining income, gain or profits arising in, derived or accruing from or losses incurred in any transaction, operation or scheme entered into between two associated enterprises calculated in accordance with the arm’s length principle, as that where a connected transaction is carried out taking into account the terms and conditions that would have been used in comparable independent transactions.

Dispute Resolution Panel.

78. (1) There shall be a Dispute Resolution Panel (hereinafter referred to as “the Panel”) for the purpose of resolution of disputes on interim order. The Panel shall consist of a Chairman and four members and a Secretary appointed by the Commissioner-General. Every member of the Panel so appointed shall hold office for a term not exceeding two years, but shall be eligible for reappointment.

(2) At the request of the Chairman, the Secretary to the Panel shall summon a meeting of the Panel. The quorum of a meeting shall consist of three members.

(3) Any person who is dissatisfied with the interim order made by the Transfer Pricing Officer or Assistant Commissioner may communicate in writing or by electronic mean by himself or by his authorized representative to the Commissioner-General, his dissatisfaction with such interim order. Every such communication shall be made to the Secretary to the Panel within fourteen days from the date of receipt of such interim order.

(4) Where such person has communicated his dissatisfaction with the interim order in terms of section 76 or 77 as the case may be, to the Commissioner-General, the Dispute Resolution Panel shall, within six months of the date of such communication of dissatisfaction on such interim order, make a final order and shall transmit such order in writing or by electronic mean to such person. A copy of such final order shall be sent to the Transfer Pricing Officer or to the Assistant Commissioner, as the case may be, for him to issue the assessment.

(5) A person who is aggrieved by the amount of an assessment made under section 135, may make an appeal to the Commissioner-General within thirty days of the notice of assessment and thereupon Chapter XIII of this Act shall apply.

79. No deduction shall be allowed for an amount incurred by a non-resident person as an expenditure of a business carried on by the non-resident person through a Sri Lankan permanent establishment that represents head office expenditure where the amount would exceed ten per cent of the person's assessable income.

Head office expenditure.

Division IV: Relief From Double Taxation

80. A resident person (other than a partnership to which subsection (1) of section 53 applies or trust to which subsection (2) of section 57 applies) may claim a foreign tax credit for a year of assessment for any foreign income tax paid by the person and to the extent to which the foreign income tax is paid with respect to the person's assessable foreign income for the year.

Calculation of foreign tax credit.

81. (1) Foreign tax credits claimed under section 80 –

- (a) shall be calculated separately for each year of assessment and separately for assessable foreign income from each employment, business, investment or other source and further separately for each gain from the realisation of an investment asset; and
- (b) with respect to each calculation, shall not exceed the average rate of Sri Lankan income tax of the person for the year applied to the person's assessable foreign income.

(2) A foreign tax credit shall be allowed under this section only if the foreign income tax is paid within two years after the end of the year in which the foreign income to which the tax relates was derived by the resident person or within such further time as the Commissioner-General may allow.

(3) Any foreign tax credit or part of a foreign tax credit allowed under this section for a year that is not credited under paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 2 shall not be refunded, carried back to the preceding year or carried forward to the following year and, in the case of the realisation of an investment asset, shall not be credited in relation to the realisation of another investment asset.

(4) For the purposes of this section –

“average rate of Sri Lankan income tax” of a resident person for a year of assessment means the percentage that tax payable by the person under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 2 (calculated under subsection (3) of section 2 without any deduction for any foreign tax credit) is of the taxable income of the person for the year; and “assessable foreign income” means foreign source income included in the assessable income of a resident person for a year of assessment from an employment, business, investment or other source as the case requires.

CHAPTER VIII

TAX PAYMENT PROCEDURE

Division I: Methods and Time for Payments

82. (1) Tax imposed under section 2 shall be payable by withholding under Division II, by instalment under Division III or on assessment under Division IV.

Methods and time for payment.

(2) Tax shall be payable-

- (a) in the case of tax payable by withholding, at the time provided for in section 86;

a return of income shall be filed under section 93 in relation to tax payable on assessment not covered by subparagraph (i); and

- (d) in any other case not stated in subsection (1), on the date stated in a notice for payment.

Division II: Tax Payable by Withholding

Withholding by employers.

83. (1) The Commissioner-General may specify the circumstances in which an employer shall withhold tax from a payment that is to be included in calculating the taxable income of an employee.

(2) The obligation of an employer to withhold tax under subsection (1) shall not be reduced or extinguished when –

- (a) the employer has a right or is under an obligation to deduct and withhold any other amount from the payment; or
- (b) any other law provides that an employee’s income from employment shall not be reduced or subject to attachment.

Withholding from investment returns.

84. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a person shall withhold tax at the rate provided for in paragraph 10 of the First Schedule to this Act where –

- (a) such person –
- (i) pays a dividend, interest, discount, charge, natural resource payment, rent, royalty, premium or retirement payment or pays amounts as winnings from a lottery, reward, betting or gambling; or

- (ii) being the precedent partner or in the absence of such partner in Sri Lanka, the agent of the partnership in Sri Lanka, at the time that each partner's relevant share of any partnership income of the partnership year under subsection (9) of section 53 has been allocated; and

(b) the payment or allocation has a source in Sri Lanka.

(2) The National Gem and Jewellery Authority established by the National Gem and Jewellery Authority Act, No. 50 of 1993 shall withhold tax at the rate provided in paragraph 10 of the First Schedule, from the sale price of any gem sold at an auction conducted by it, from the sum payable to the seller of such gem and at the time of such sum is paid to the seller.

(3) This section shall not apply to –

- (a) payments subject to withholding under section 83;
- (b) payments made by individuals, unless made in conducting a business;
- (c) interest paid to a financial institution on the ordinary loans and advances provided by it; or
- (d) interest or discount paid to any person on Security or Treasury Bond under the Registered Stocks and Securities Ordinance (Chapter 420) or Treasury Bill under the Local Treasury Bills Ordinance (Chapter 417); or
- (e) payments or allocations that are exempt amounts under section 9.

Withholding from service fees and contract payments.

85. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a person shall withhold tax at the rate provided for in paragraph 10 of the First Schedule to this Act where such person –

- (a) pays a service fee with a source in Sri Lanka to a resident individual who is not an employee of the payer –
  - (i) for teaching, lecturing, examining, invigilating or supervising an examination;
  - (ii) as a commission or brokerage to a resident insurance, sales or canvassing agent;
  - (iii) as an endorsement fee;
  - (iv) in relation to the supply of any article on a contract basis through tender or quotation; or
  - (v) for such other matters as may be prescribed by regulation; or
- (b) pays a service fee or an insurance premium with a source in Sri Lanka to a non-resident person.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), regulations may be made prescribing –

- (a) that a resident person shall withhold tax when the person makes a payment to a non-resident person of a type referred to in paragraph (h) or (i) of section 73 (land, sea or air transport or telecommunication services); and
- (b) the rate at which the tax referred to in paragraph (a) shall be withheld.

(3) This section shall not apply to –

- (a) payments subject to withholding under section 83;

- (b) payments made by individuals, unless made in conducting a business;
- (c) payments that are exempt amounts; or
- (d) payments of specified fees in respect of which a certificate is presented by the recipient person confirming that the payments are chargeable with the Economic Service Charge under the Economic Service Charge Act, No. 13 of 2006.

Statements and payments of tax withheld or treated as withheld.

(2) Every withholding agent shall file with the Commissioner-General within thirty days after the end of each year ending on the thirty first day of March an annual statement setting out the following:—

- (a) payments made by the agent during the period that are subject to withholding under this Division;
- (b) the name, address and tax identification number of the withholdee;
- (c) tax withheld from each payment; and
- (d) any other information that the Commissioner-General may specify.

(3) A withholding agent who fails to withhold tax in accordance with this Division shall however pay the tax that should have been withheld in the same manner and at the same time as tax that is withheld.

(4) Where a withholding agent fails to withhold tax from a payment as required by this Division –

- (a) the withholdee shall be jointly and severally liable with the withholding agent for the payment of the tax to the Commissioner-General; and
- (b) the tax shall be payable by the withholdee within fifteen days after the end of the calendar month in which the payment is received.

(5) A withholding agent who withholds tax under this Division and pays the tax to the Commissioner-General shall be treated as having paid the amount withheld to the withholdee for the purposes of any claim by the withholdee for payment of the amount withheld.

(6) A withholding agent who fails to withhold tax under this Division but pays the tax that should have been withheld to the Commissioner-General in accordance with subsection (3) shall be entitled to recover an equal amount from the withholdee.

Withholding certificates.

87. (1) A withholding agent shall prepare and serve on a withholdee a withholding certificate –

- (a) separately for each period referred to in subsections (3) and (4);
- (b) at the time referred to in those subsections; and
- (c) in the form specified.

(2) A withholding certificate shall set out the amount of payments made to the withholdee during the period and tax withheld by the withholding agent from those payments under this Division.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) a withholding certificate shall cover a calendar month and shall be served within thirty days after the end of the month.

(4) In the case of tax withheld under section 83, a withholding certificate-

- (a) shall cover the part of the year during which the employee is employed; and
- (b) shall be served not later than the thirtieth day of April of that year or, where the employee has ceased employment with the withholding agent during the year, no more than thirty days from the date on which the employment ceased.

(5) A resident company paying a dividend to a member shall also prepare and serve a certificate on that member (whether or not combined with or forming part of, a withholding certificate) setting out the amount of the dividend that is attributable to or derived from, another dividend received by that resident company that either was subject to withholding under section 84 to withholding tax or in respect of which another certificate was received by the resident company under this subsection.

88. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the following shall be the final withholding payments:-

withholding
payments.

- (a) dividends paid by a resident company to a resident person;
- (b) interest paid to or treated as being derived by-
  - (i) a resident individual (other than such amount of interest paid to a senior citizen falling within the relief threshold in paragraph 2 (d) of the Fifth Schedule to this Act);
  - (ii) a charitable institution;
- (c) amounts paid as winnings from a lottery, reward, betting or gambling, other than amounts received in conducting a business consisting of betting and gaming; and

- (d) payments made to non-resident persons that are subject to withholding under this Division, or would be so subject if paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 84 and paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 85 were disregarded, other than payments derived through a Sri Lankan permanent establishment.

(2) The following shall relieve a withholder's tax liability under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 2:-

- (a) tax withheld from a final withholding payment under this Division; and
- (b) tax paid with respect to a final withholding payment in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) of section 86.

(3) Where a final withholding payment is not subject to withholding (whether by reason of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 84 or paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 85 or that the payer is a non-resident) the recipient's tax liability under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 2 with respect to the payment shall be payable by way of instalment and assessment. For the purposes of applying Divisions III and IV, the liability shall be treated as a liability under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 2.

Credit for non-final withholding tax.

89. (1) The withholder of a payment that is not a final withholding payment shall be treated as having paid any tax –

- (a) withheld from the payment under this Division; or
- (b) paid with respect to the payment in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) of section 86.

(2) A withholdee shall be entitled to a tax credit in an amount equal to the tax treated as paid under subsection (1) for the year of assessment in which the payment is derived.

Division III: Tax Payable by Instalment

90. (1) A person who is an “instalment payer” shall pay tax by quarterly instalments if he derives or expects to derive assessable income during a year of assessment – Payment of tax by quarterly instalment.

- (a) from a business or investment; or
- (b) from an employment where the employer is not required to withhold tax under section 83.

(2) An instalment payer shall pay instalments of tax-

- (a) in the case of a person whose year of assessment is a twelve month period ending on the thirty first day of March, on or before the fifteenth day respectively of August, November and February in that year of assessment and the fifteenth day of May of the next succeeding year of assessment; or
- (b) in any other case, on or before the fifteenth day after each three-month period commencing at the beginning of each year of assessment and a final instalment on or before the fifteenth day after the end of each year of assessment, unless it coincides with the end of one of the three-month periods.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the amount of each instalment of tax payable by an instalment payer for a year of assessment shall be calculated according to the following formula:–

$$\frac{A - C}{B}$$

where 'A' is the current estimated tax payable under section 91 or 92 by the instalment payer for the year of assessment;

'B' is the number of instalments remaining for the year of assessment including the current instalment; and

'C' is the sum of any –

- (a) tax paid during the year of assessment, but prior to the due date for payment of the instalment, by the person by previous instalment under this section;
- (b) tax withheld under Division II during the year, but prior to the due date for payment of the instalment, from payments received by the person that are included in calculating the person's income for the year; and
- (c) tax paid in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) of section 86 that is paid to the Commissioner-General by a withholding agent or the person as withholdee during the year but prior to the due date for payment of the instalment.

(4) The Commissioner-General may specify by a Gazette Notification -

- (a) that a particular class of persons shall pay tax by instalments otherwise than or in substitution for instalments payable under this section;
- (b) that a particular class of organised association or recognized occupational group shall collect from its members tax payable by those members by instalment under this section;
- (c) the terms and conditions on which the tax shall be collected; and
- (d) the terms and conditions on which the association or group shall account to the Commissioner-General for the tax.

- (iii) a ruling published under section 111 that is in force;
- (b) the application relates to a question that is the subject of a tax audit in relation to the applicant or an objection lodged by the applicant;
- (c) the application is frivolous or vexatious;
- (d) the transaction to which the application relates has not been carried out and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction will not be carried out;
- (e) the applicant has not provided the tax official with sufficient information to make a private ruling;
- (f) in the opinion of the Commissioner-General, it would be unreasonable to comply with the application, having regard to the resources needed to comply with the application and any other matters the tax officer considers relevant; or
- (g) the making of the ruling involves the application of a tax avoidance provision.

(2) The Commissioner-General shall serve the applicant with a written notice of a decision to refuse to make a private ruling under this section.

Making a private ruling.

109. (1) The Commissioner-General may make a private ruling by serving written notice of the private ruling on the recipient of the ruling.

(2) The Commissioner-General may make a private ruling on the basis of assumptions about a future event or other matters as considered appropriate.

(3) A private ruling shall state that it is a private ruling, set out the question ruled on, and identify the following:-

- (a) the taxpayer;
- (b) the tax period to which the ruling applies;
- (c) the transaction to which the ruling relates; and
- (d) any assumptions on which the ruling is based.

(4) A private ruling is made when the applicant is served with written notice of the ruling and the ruling shall remain in force until withdrawn under section 110.

(5) A private ruling shall set out the Commissioner-General's opinion on the question raised in the ruling application and shall not be a decision of the Commissioner-General that can be formally reviewed, appealed or otherwise objected to, for the purposes of this Act or any other law. For the avoidance of doubt, this subsection shall not limit in any way a taxpayer's rights with respect to any tax assessment served on the taxpayer to which the ruling relates.

110. (1) The Commissioner-General may, for reasonable cause, withdraw a private ruling, in whole or part, by written notice served on the applicant.

Withdrawal of a private ruling.

(2) In the event a private ruling is subsequently found to be inconsistent in whole or part with any law, such private ruling shall be withdrawn in whole or part by the Commissioner-General to the extent necessary to overcome such inconsistency.

(3) The withdrawal of a private ruling, in whole or part, shall have effect from the date specified in the notice of withdrawal.

Publication of private rulings.

111. (1) The Commissioner-General shall publish a ruling made under section 109 on the Department's website except that the identity of the applicant to whom the ruling relates must not be indicated in the publication.

(2) When a ruling has been withdrawn in accordance with section 110, the Commissioner-General shall immediately publish a notice of withdrawal on the Department's website stating that the ruling ceases to be binding with effect from the date determined under subsection (3) of section 110.

Division V: Communications, Forms and Notices

Communications with taxpayers and other persons.

112. (1) A notice or statement, issued or an agreement entered into by the Commissioner-General or any tax official to a taxpayer or other person shall be effective if it is authorised by law and in writing, and signed by a tax official.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Act or any other law, a notice or other document required to be served on a person by the Commissioner General may be served in the following manner:-

(2) The Commissioner-General may direct a person to do anything referred to in subsection (1) electronically through the use of a computer system or mobile electronic device.

(3) The Commissioner-General may specify conditions, including additional conditions, for the effective use of the Revenue Administration Management Information System.

(4) A person who files a tax return and pays tax electronically under this section shall continue to file tax returns and pay tax in that manner unless otherwise required or permitted by the Act or authorised by the Commissioner-General.

Forms and notices.

114. (1) The Commissioner-General shall specify the forms, notices, declarations, returns, statements, tables, and other documents and publish them for the efficient administration of this Act.

(2) The documents referred in subsection (1) shall be available to the public on the website of the Department or at its main office and at other locations, or by mail or electronically, as the Commissioner-General may determine.

115. The Commissioner-General may specify the circumstances under which a taxpayer may designate an authorized representative to communicate with the Department on behalf of the taxpayer and shall accept a designation made in accordance with such circumstances.

Authorized representatives.

116. (1) No notice, assessment, form, certificate, or other proceeding purporting to be in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable for want of form or be affected by reason of a mistake, defect or omission, if it is in substance and effect in conformity with, or according to the intent and meaning of this Act, and where the person assessed or intended to be assessed or affected thereby, is reasonably described or identified.

Defect does not affect validity.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), an assessment shall not be affected or impugned by reason of –

- (a) a mistake as to the name or surname of the person chargeable, the amount of income assessed, or the amount of tax charged; or
- (b) any variance between the assessment and the notice thereof, if the notice of such assessment is duly served on the person intended to be charged and contains in substance and effect all relevant particulars.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) and subsection (2), no notice, assessment, form, certificate, or other proceeding purporting to be in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable or be affected by reason of any variance in the designation of the tax official who signed or executed such notice, assessment, form, certificate or other proceeding as the case may be.

Rectification of mistakes.

117. When a notice of a tax assessment or other document served by the Commissioner-General under this Act contains a mistake that is apparent from the record and the mistake does not involve a dispute as to the interpretation of the law or facts of the case, the Commissioner-General may, for the purposes of rectifying the mistake, amend the assessment or other document any time before the expiry of four years from the date of service of the notice of the tax assessment or other document.

Taxpayer's right to information.

118. Upon request by a taxpayer, an authorized officer of the Department shall –

- (a) inform the taxpayer of the status of the taxpayer's account with respect to tax;
- (b) provide a copy of a tax return filed by the taxpayer; and
- (c) provide a copy of any written agreement entered into with the Commissioner-General.

Due dates.

119. (1) When the last day for performing an act specified under this Act falls on a day on which the Department is not open to the public for business, the act shall be considered timely if it is performed on the next succeeding day on which the Department is open for business.

(2) A declaration, appeal, or other document, other than a payment, shall be considered filed on the date it is stamped, as received by the Department or, in the case of filing by post, within four days of the date of the postmark.

- (b) at the time stated and in the manner authorised in writing by a Magistrate upon application by the Commissioner-General and a showing of necessity to enter that time.

(3) An authorised officer may enter on any property for the purpose of surveying and valuing it—

- (a) with the consent of the taxpayer; or
- (b) after giving not less than twenty-four hours' notice in writing.

(4) An authorised officer who lawfully enters a premises or a dwelling under subsection (1), (2) or (3) may—

- (a) make a copy of a record;
- (b) seize a record or other item that appears to be relevant to an authorised purpose;
- (c) seal records or other items;
- (d) question any person in the premises or dwelling with respect to any matter arising under this Act;
- (e) open and examine any receptacle where any book of account, register, record, or other document may be found and examine and make an inventory of any materials found therein;
- (f) operate any computer and take a record of any data stored within; or

(g) count and make a record of any cash found.

(5) Where an authorised officer seizes a record or other item pursuant to the authority provided under this section, the Commissioner-General may make a copy of the record or other item and shall return the original to the person in the shortest time practicable.

(6) A copy of a document made pursuant to the power conferred by this section may be produced in Court and shall have the same evidentiary value as if it were an original.

(7) This section shall not authorise access to premises of diplomatic, consular, or other missions of foreign countries and international organizations which enjoy immunity from such investigations under international law.

(8) Where taxpayer or other specified person fails to provide any document required by the Commissioner-General under this section or section 123 such document shall not be used by the taxpayer or other person in a judicial proceeding challenging an assessment, except with the agreement of the Commissioner-General.

(9) The owner or lawful occupier of the premises or place in respect of which power is exercised under this section shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance to the authorised officer.

(10) A person whose books, records, or other items have been seized under this section may examine them and make copies, at the person's expense, during office hours.

(11) An authorised officer shall sign for all records, books, or other items removed and retained under this section and shall return them to the owner within fourteen days of the conclusion of the investigation or related proceedings.

(12) The Commissioner-General may cause any land to be visited, inspected, and measured and may call on any person to produce for inspection any map, plan, title deed, instrument of title, or other document in the custody or under the control of that person which relates to the land.

(13) The Commissioner-General shall require a peace officer to be present for the purposes of exercising powers under this section, unless the Commissioner-General is of the opinion that the presence of a peace officer shall not be necessary in the circumstances.

(14) In this section-

“authorised purpose” means—

- (i) the collection of information for the purpose of determining the liability of person for the payment of tax;
- (ii) the collection of information for the purpose of collecting tax from a specific person; or
- (iii) the collection of information related to the investigation or prosecution of a specific person for an offence specified in this Act; and “business premises” includes a place where any business is carried on, where anything is done in connection with a business, a dwelling used for the maintenance of stocks, keeping of records, signing of contracts or agreements, and attesting of deeds, and any place used for meeting clients.

123. (1) For the purpose of this Act, the Assistant Commissioner may require from the tax payer or the Commissioner may require from any other person, by giving reasonable notice in writing—

Notice to obtain information.

- (a) to furnish any information that is required by the notice, including information concerning another person;

- (b) to appear at the time and place designated in the notice for the purpose of being examined or of producing documents or other evidence in control of that person which are referred in the notice; or
- (c) to produce, within the time specified in the notice, all documents in the person's custody or under the person's control relating to the person's or any other person's tax affairs as specified in the notice.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Commissioner may require any bank—

- (a) to furnish to the Commissioner details of any banking account or other assets which may be held on behalf of any person, or to furnish a copy of bank statements of any such banking account; or
- (b) to permit the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner to inspect the records of the bank with respect to the banking account of any person; or
- (c) to furnish annually a schedule showing the amount of interest paid on deposits together with the names and addresses of the persons to whom such interest accrued or may require the attendance of any officer of a bank before the Commissioner to give evidence with regard to any bank account or other assets which may be held by the bank on behalf of any person.

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) shall extend to the furnishing of information, the production of documents and the giving of evidence to the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner in relation to—

- (a) the payment of income by any person to a non-resident; or

- (b) the payment of remuneration by an employer to an employee, the deduction of tax therefrom and the accounting for any tax so deducted.

(4) The Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner may make copies of books of account or other documents that are produced for purposes of this section, or may retain them where such course of action appears to the Commissioner-General to be necessary for the purposes of any prosecution or the substantiation of any assessment.

(5) Subject to subsection (8) of section 122, this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything contrary in any written law relating to confidentiality, privilege, or the public interest with respect to the production of or access to documents or other evidence, including a law relating to bank secrecy and any contractual duty of confidentiality.

124. (1) For the purposes of determining whether a person has violated any provisions of this Act, the Commissioner-General or an authorised officer may make an ex parte application to a Magistrate for a search and seizure warrant.

Search and seizure with warrant.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall set out the following:-

- (a) the provisions of this Act alleged to have been contravened;
- (b) the name of the person alleged to have contravened the provisions of this Act;
- (c) the premises to be searched; and
- (d) the documents sought.

(3) When an application is made under subsection (1), Magistrate may issue a search and seizure warrant where he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that-

- (a) the search and seizure is necessary to determine whether a person has contravened any provision of this Act or committed an offence under this Act; and
- (b) any documents (including in electronic format) that are likely to be found on the premises which may provide evidence as to the matters specified in paragraph (a).

(4) A warrant issued under subsection (3) shall, as far as is reasonably practical contain the following information:-

- (a) the alleged commission of the offence under this Act which is the basis for the application;
- (b) the person alleged to have contravened any provision of this Act or committed an offence under this Act;
- (c) the premises to be searched; and
- (d) the documents that are the subject of the search.

Execution of a search and seizure with warrant and search without warrant.

125. (1) The owner or lawful occupier of premises to which access is sought under a search and seizure warrant may refuse access to the premises where the Commissioner-General or authorised officer fails to produce the warrant.

(2) An authorized officer shall not enter or remain on any premises which is subject to search and seizure warrant if, upon request by the owner or lawful occupier, the officer is unable to produce an authorisation in writing from the Commissioner-General permitting the officer to exercise powers under the warrant.

(3) In executing powers under a search and seizure warrant, the Commissioner-General or authorised officer -

- (a) shall have full and free access, at any time and without notice-
  - (i) to the premises specified in the warrant;
  - (ii) to any relevant material located on the premises, including in electronic format; and
  - (iii) to any data storage device located on the premises containing relevant material;
- (b) may open or cause to be opened or removed in conducting a search of the premises specified in the warrant, anything that the Commissioner-General or authorised officer reasonably suspects to contain relevant material;
- (c) may make an extract, or a paper or electronic copy of any relevant material, including on a data storage device;
- (d) may seize any relevant material;
- (e) may, if a paper or electronic copy of relevant material on a data storage device is not provided, seize and retain the device for as long as is necessary to copy the information required; and
- (f) may search any person on the premises specified in the warrant.

(4) The owner or lawful occupier of the premises to which an exercise of search and seizure warrant relates shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance to the Commissioner-General or authorised officer including the following:-

- (a) answering questions, orally or in writing, concerning whether a person has violated the provisions of this Act; or

(b) providing access to information necessary to decrypt data to which access is sought in exercise of a search and seizure warrant.

(5) The Commissioner-General or authorised officer shall-

(a) make a written inventory of the relevant material seized and provide a copy thereof to the owner of the material; and

(b) sign for any relevant material or data storage device removed and retained under this section.

(6) An authorized officer may search a person only if such officer is of the same sex as the person being searched.

(7) For the purposes of the exercise of powers under this section, the Commissioner-General or any authorised officer may require a police officer to be present when executing a warrant under this section.

(8) The Commissioner-General or authorised officer shall not retain any document seized under this section for a period longer than six months from the date of seizure unless the document is required for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act or any other written law.

CHAPTER XI

TAX RETURNS

Tax returns.

126. (1) Every person chargeable with income tax under this Act shall furnish to the Assistant Commissioner in accordance with subsection (2) a tax return in the specified form containing such particulars as may be specified by the Commissioner- General either in writing or by electronic means within the stipulated time.

(2) The Commissioner-General may specify—

- (a) the form for returns;
- (b) the information to be furnished on the return and attachments, if any, required to be filed with the return; and
- (c) the manner of filing.

(3) An Assistant Commissioner shall not be bound by a tax return or information provided by, or on behalf of, a taxpayer and the Assistant Commissioner may determine a taxpayer's tax liability based on any sources of information available to the Assistant Commissioner.

(4) A taxpayer or the taxpayer's duly authorised agent, shall sign the return, attesting to its accuracy and completeness.

(5) Where a return or part of a return was prepared for reward by some other person, including by an approved accountant, other than a full-time employee of the taxpayer, that other person shall also sign the return.

(6) An Assistant Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require a person to file, whether on that person's own behalf or as agent or trustee for another person, additional returns for a tax period as the Assistant Commissioner requires, even if the taxpayer has not submitted a return for the period, with that person to be given a period of not less than seven days to file the additional returns.

127. (1) Where it appears to the Commissioner-General that any person who is liable to furnish a return and has not done so, the Commissioner-General may, by notice in writing, require such person to furnish a return within such time as may be specified in the notice, not being less than fourteen days from the date of service of such notice.

Notice to require filing.

(2) Nothing in this section extends the time limits provided under this Act for the furnishing of a return.

Return deemed to be furnished by due authority.

128. Every return, statement, or form purporting to be furnished under this Act by or on behalf of any person shall be deemed to have been furnished by that person or with the person's authority, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved, and any person signing such return, statement, or form shall be deemed to be cognisant of all matters contained therein.

Information Returns.

129. The provisions of this Act relating to returns shall apply to a person required under this Act to file a return of information related to matters other than the person's own tax liability.

Extension of time to file returns.

130. (1) The Commissioner-General may extend the time limit specified for filing a tax return where the taxpayer or other person required to file the return applies for the extension by due date.

(2) The granting of an extension of time under subsection (1) shall not affect the due date for payment of tax, unless an extension of time for payment is also expressly granted.

Tax return duly filed.

131. A tax return that is purported to be filed by or on behalf of a taxpayer shall be treated as having been filed by the taxpayer or with the taxpayer's authority unless the contrary is proved.

CHAPTER XII

ASSESSMENTS

Self-assessments.

132. (1) A self-assessment taxpayer who has filed a self-assessment return in the approved form for a tax period shall be treated, for all purposes of this Act, as having made an assessment of the amount of tax payable as set out in the return (including a nil amount) for the tax period to which the return relates.

(2) Where a self-assessment taxpayer liable for income tax has filed a self-assessment return in the approved form for a year of assessment and the taxpayer has a loss for the year, the taxpayer shall be treated, for all purposes of this Act, as having made an assessment of the amount of the loss set out in the return.

(3) A tax return in the approved form completed and filed in writing or electronically by a taxpayer shall be a self-assessment return despite the following:-

- (a) the form included pre-filled information provided by the Commissioner-General; or
- (b) the tax payable is computed electronically as information is inserted into the form.

133. (1) Where a taxpayer has failed to file a tax return for a tax period as required under this Act, the Assistant Commissioner may, based on such evidence as may be available and to the best of his or her judgement, make an assessment (hereinafter referred to as a “default assessment”) of the tax (including a nil amount) payable by the taxpayer for the period.

Default
assessments.

(2) The Assistant Commissioner shall serve a taxpayer assessed under subsection (1) with notice, in writing, of a default assessment specifying the following:

- (a) the amount of tax assessed;
- (b) the amount assessed as penalty (if any) payable in respect of the tax assessed;
- (c) the amount of late payment interest (if any) payable in respect of the tax assessed;
- (d) the tax period to which the assessment relates;

(e) the due date for payment of the tax, penalty, and interest being a date that is not less than thirty days from the date of service of the notice; and

(f) the manner of objecting to the assessment.

(3) The service of a notice of a default assessment under this section shall not change the due date (hereinafter referred to as the “original due date”) for payment of the tax payable under the assessment, and late payment penalty and late payment interest shall remain payable based on the original due date.

(4) This section shall apply only for the purposes of a tax that is collected by assessment.

(5) A default assessment may be made at any time.

(6) Nothing in this section shall relieve a taxpayer from being required to file the tax return to which the default assessment served under this section relates.

(7) A tax return filed by a taxpayer for a tax period after a default assessment has been served on the taxpayer for the period shall not be a self-assessment return.

Advance
assessments.

134. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Assistant Commissioner may, based on such evidence as may be available and to the best of his judgement, make an assessment (referred to as an “advance assessment”) of the tax payable by a taxpayer for a tax period.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply only when:

(a) the taxpayer has not filed a tax return for the tax period; and

(b) the tax is collected by assessment.

(3) An advance assessment—

- (a) may be made before the date on which the taxpayer's tax return for the period is due; and
- (b) shall be made in accordance with the law in force at the date the advance assessment was made.

(4) The Assistant Commissioner shall serve a taxpayer assessed under subsection (1) with notice, in writing, of the advance assessment specifying the following:—

- (a) the amount of tax assessed;
- (b) the amount assessed as penalty (if any) payable in respect of the tax assessed;
- (c) the tax period to which the assessment relates;
- (d) the due date for payment of the tax and penalty, which may be a date before the tax would otherwise be due for the tax period; and
- (e) the manner of objecting to the assessment.

(5) The Assistant Commissioner may specify in a notice of an advance assessment that the tax and penalty due shall be payable immediately.

(6) An advance assessment may be the subject of an amended assessment so that the taxpayer is assessed in respect of the whole of the tax period to which the advance assessment relates.

(7) Nothing in this section shall relieve a taxpayer from the requirement to file the tax return to which the advance assessment served under this section relates.

(8) A tax return filed by a taxpayer for a tax period after an advance assessment has been served on the taxpayer for the period is not a self-assessment return.

Amended or
assessments.

135. (1) Subject to this section, the Assistant Commissioner may amend a tax assessment (referred to in this section as the “original assessment”) by making such alterations or additions, based on such evidence as may be available and to the best of his judgement, to the original assessment of a taxpayer for a tax period to ensure that:

- (a) in the case of a loss carried forward under this Act, the taxpayer is assessed in respect of the correct amount of the loss carried forward for the tax period; or
- (b) in any other case, the taxpayer is liable for the correct amount of tax payable (including a nil amount) in respect of the tax period to which the original assessment relates.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Assistant Commissioner may amend a tax assessment under subsection (1):-

- (a) in the case of fraud, or gross or wilful neglect by, or on behalf of, the taxpayer, at any time; or
- (b) in any other case, within thirty months of:
  - (i) for a self-assessment, the date that the self-assessment taxpayer filed the self-assessment return to which the self-assessment relates; or
  - (ii) for any other assessment, the date on which the Assistant Commissioner served notice of the assessment on the taxpayer.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where the Assistant Commissioner has served a notice of an amended assessment on a taxpayer under subsection (1), the Assistant Commissioner may further amend the original assessment to which the amended assessment relates within the later of:-

- (a) four years after:-
  - (i) for a self-assessment, the date the taxpayer filed the self-assessment return to which the self-assessment relates; or
  - (ii) for any other assessment, the date the Assistant Commissioner served notice of the original assessment on the taxpayer; or
- (b) one year after the Assistant Commissioner has served notice of the amended assessment on the taxpayer.

(4) In any case to which paragraph (b) of subsection (3) applies, the Assistant Commissioner is restricted to amending the alterations or additions made in the amended assessment to the original assessment.

(5) Where the Assistant Commissioner has made an amended or additional assessment under this section, he shall serve the taxpayer with notice, in writing, of the amended assessment specifying the following:-

- (a) the original assessment to which the amended assessment relates;
- (b) the amount of tax assessed and the basis upon which the amended or additional assessment has been made;
- (c) the amount assessed as penalty (if any) in respect of the tax assessed;
- (d) the amount of late payment interest (if any) payable in respect of the tax assessed;

- (e) the tax period to which the assessment relates;
- (f) the due date for payment of any tax, penalty, and interest being a date that is not less than thirty days from the date of service of the notice; and
- (g) the manner of objecting to the assessment.

(6) The service of a notice of an amended assessment under this section shall not change the original due date (referred to as the “original due date”) for payment of the tax payable under the assessment as determined under this Act, and late payment penalty and late payment interest shall remain payable based on the original due date.

Application for making an amendment to a self-assessment.

136. (1) A taxpayer who has filed a self-assessment return may apply to the Commissioner-General for making an amendment to the self-assessment.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall:

- (a) state the amendments that the taxpayer believes are required to be made to correct the self-assessment and the reasons for the amendments; and
- (b) be filed with the Commissioner-General within the period specified in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 135.

(3) Where an application has been made under subsection (1), the Commissioner-General may make a decision to amend the self-assessment or to refuse the application.

(4) When the Commissioner-General makes a decision to amend the self-assessment:

- (a) the amended assessment shall be made in accordance with subsection (1) section 135; and

- (b) notice of the amended assessment shall be served on the taxpayer in accordance with subsection (5) section 135.

(5) Where the Commissioner-General makes a decision to refuse an application under subsection (1) he shall serve the taxpayer with written notice of the decision with reasons for the decision.

(6) Where the Commissioner-General has not made a decision on an application made under subsection (1) within ninety days of the application being filed, the Commissioner-General shall be deemed to have:-

- (a) made a decision to disallow the application; and
- (b) served the taxpayer with notice of the decision on the ninetieth day after the application was filed.

CHAPTER XIII

OBJECTIONS AND APPEALS

137. Except as provided for under this Chapter— Objections.

- (a) no decision relating to the payment of a tax under this Act shall be disputed at the Tax Appeals Commission, in any Court or Tribunal or any other proceedings on any other ground; and
- (b) the amount and particulars of every assessment made by the Commissioner-General in respect of a taxpayer shall be treated as correct and the liability of the taxpayer shall be determined accordingly.

Administrative Review.

139. (1) A taxpayer who is dissatisfied with an assessment or other decision may request the Commissioner-General to review the decision.

(2) A request for review shall be made to the Commissioner-General in writing not later than thirty days after the taxpayer was notified of the decision, and shall specify in detail the grounds upon which it is made.

(3) Where the request is an objection against an assessment which has been made in the absence of a return required to be made, the notice of request relating to the objection shall be sent together with a return duly made.

(4) The receipt of every request shall be acknowledged within thirty days of its receipt and where so acknowledged, the date of the letter of acknowledgement shall for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be the date of receipt of such request.

(5) The Commissioner-General shall consider the taxpayer's request and notify the taxpayer in writing of the Commissioner-General's decision and the reasons for the decision. Taxpayer's request shall be considered by a tax official other than the tax official who made the assessment or other decision.

(6) The Commissioner-General shall give effect to the decision referred to in subsection (5) by confirming an existing assessment or making an amended assessment (including for a nil amount) or an additional assessment in accordance with this Act, or taking such other necessary action to give effect to that decision.

(7) Where the Commissioner-General hears the evidence of a taxpayer or of any other person in respect of the request, a record of such evidence shall be maintained or caused to be maintained.

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the taxpayer may make a request for administrative review upon satisfying the Commissioner-General that owing to absence from Sri Lanka, sickness, or other reasonable cause the taxpayer was prevented from making the request within thirty days of the event described in subsection (2), and that there has been no unreasonable delay on the taxpayer's part.

140. (1) A person aggrieved by the decision of administrative review under section 139 may appeal against the decision to the Tax Appeals Commission.

Appeal from
Review.

(2) An appeal to the Tax Appeals Commission shall not be made unless a request for administrative review has first been made, and —

- (a) a decision has been received from the Commissioner-General; or
- (b) ninety days have lapsed since the request for administrative review was made.

(3) Where the Tax Appeals Commission is satisfied that the appellant is overcharged it may reduce the amount of the assessment by the amount of the overcharge, and if it is satisfied that the appellant is undercharged, it may increase the amount of the assessment by the amount of the undercharge, or may confirm or annul the assessment.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XVI, where the Tax Appeals Commission is satisfied that tax in accordance with its decision upon the appeal may not be recovered, the Tax Appeals Commission may require the appellant to furnish security for payment of the tax, if any, which may become payable by the appellant as may seem to the Tax Appeals Commission to be proper.

(5) Notice of an appeal under this section shall be given in writing to the Tax Appeals Commission with a copy to the Commissioner-General within thirty days from the date of the decision of the Commissioner-General under section 139.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5), the appellant may appeal against an assessment or other decision upon satisfying the Tax Appeals Commission that owing to absence from Sri Lanka, sickness, or other reasonable cause the appellant was prevented from giving notice of appeal within thirty days as required under subsection (2), and that there has been no unreasonable delay on the appellant's part.

Burden of proof.

141. The burden of proof shall be on the taxpayer or person making an objection to an assessment to show that the assessment is incorrect.

Appeals do not suspend collection of amounts.

142. Notwithstanding that a request for administrative review of an assessment has been filed or a taxpayer has appealed to the Tax Appeals Commission against an assessment, the tax payable under the assessment shall remain due and payable, unless the Commissioner-General grants an extension of time under section 151 and may be recovered, despite the request for review or appeal.

Finality of assessment.

143. (1) Subject to the right of the Assistant Commissioner to issue a new or revised assessment under section 135 and subject to subsection (2), if no request for review is made within the time permitted by section 139, an assessment shall be treated as final.

(2) If an assessment is treated as final under subsection (1), and the taxpayer timely files an amended return under section 136, the filing of the amended return has the effect of revising the assessment, but only if the tax shown on the amended return exceeds the tax assessed.

Appeal from a decision of the Tax Appeals Commission.

144. (1) Either party to a proceeding before the Tax Appeals Commission who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Tax Appeals Commission may, within one month after being notified of the decision, file a notice of appeal with the Court of Appeal; and the party so appealing shall serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the other party to the proceeding before the Tax Appeals Commission.

(2) An appeal to the Court of Appeal shall not be made unless an appeal request to the Tax Appeals Commission has first been made, and—

- (a) a decision has been received from the Tax Appeals Commission; or
- (b) ninety days have lapsed since the request for appeal to the Tax Appeals Commission was made and no response to the request for appeal has been received from the Tax Appeals Commission.

(3) An appeal from a decision of the Tax Appeals Commission to the Court of Appeal shall be made only on a question of law.

(4) Where an appeal is made from a decision of the Tax Appeals Commission, the Tax Appeals Commission shall provide a written statement of the decision, including a summary of the evidence, the Commission's finding of the facts, and their conclusions on the points of law involved.

CHAPTER XIV

LIABILITY FOR AND PAYMENT OF TAX

Liability of taxpayer and due date.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the amount of tax—

- (a) stated in a notice of assessment to be due; or
- (b) deemed to be assessed under Chapter XII, shall be due and payable on the date stated in the notice or, in the case described in paragraph (b), on the due date for the return in question.

(3) Tax shall be paid in the manner and place specified by the Commissioner-General.

(4) Where the Commissioner-General has reasonable grounds to believe that a taxpayer may leave Sri Lanka before the due date for payment of an amount that would be due under this Act, inform the person by notice in writing that tax is due on the date specified by the Commissioner-General.

(5) Where a taxpayer fails to pay tax on the due date, the taxpayer shall be liable for any costs incurred by the Commissioner-General in taking action to recover the unpaid tax.

Liability and obligations of representatives.

146. (1) For the purposes of this Act, subject to subsection (2), “representative,” in respect of a person, means—

- (a) where the person is an individual under a legal disability, the guardian or manager who receives or is entitled to receive income on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the individual;
- (b) where the person is a company, a director or principal officer of the company or an agent referred to in subsection (4);
- (c) where the person is a partnership, a partner;
- (d) where the person is a trust, a trustee;
- (e) where the person is a body of persons other than a partnership or company, an individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds on behalf of the body;
- (f) where the person is the Government of Sri Lanka, an individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds on behalf of the Government;
- (g) where the person is a public corporation or local authority in Sri Lanka, an individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds on behalf of such public corporation or local authority;

- (h) where the person is a foreign government or political subdivision of a foreign government, an individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds in Sri Lanka on behalf of the government or political subdivision of the government; or
- (i) where the person is a non-resident, a person controlling the person's affairs in Sri Lanka, including a manager of a business of that person in Sri Lanka.

(2) Where, in relation to a person, there is more than one representative, described in subsection (1), then that person shall nominate which of them shall serve as the representative, but in the absence of a designation all shall serve as representatives pending the designation.

(3) The nomination under subsection (2) shall be of a person residing in Sri Lanka, unless there is none in relation to the person.

(4) Every company carrying on business in Sri Lanka shall be represented for the purposes of this Act by a principal officer residing in Sri Lanka and where there is none, by an authorised agent residing in Sri Lanka, and shall notify the Commissioner-General of its appointed representative within one month after it commences carrying on business in Sri Lanka, or one month after the representative ceases to qualify as such.

(5) Where a representative of a person nominated under subsection (1) is unable to perform duties, the Commissioner-General may, by notice in writing, declare another individual to be a representative of the person for the purposes of this Act.

(6) Every representative of a person shall be responsible for performing duties or obligations imposed by this Act on the person, including maintaining records, filing returns and other documents, and the payment of tax.

(7) Subject to subsection (9), the tax that, by virtue of subsection (6), is payable by a representative of a person shall be recoverable from the representative only to the extent of any assets of the person that are in the possession or under the control of the representative.

(8) A representative of a person who pays tax owed by the person shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from the person or to retain the amount so paid out of any moneys of the person that are in the representative's possession or under the representative's control.

(9) A representative of a tax payer shall be personally liable for the payment of tax due by the tax payer if, while the amount remains unpaid, the representative—

- (a) alienates, charges, or disposes of moneys received or accrued in respect of which the tax is payable; or
- (b) disposes of or parts with moneys or funds belonging to the taxpayer that are in the possession of the representative or which come to the representative after the tax is payable, if the tax could legally have been paid from or out of the moneys or funds.

(10) A representative of a tax payer shall not be personally liable for tax under subsection (9) if-

- (a) the monies were paid by the representative on behalf of a taxpayer and the amount paid has priority, in law or equity, over the tax payable by the taxpayer; or
- (b) at the time the monies were paid, the representative had no knowledge, and could not reasonably be expected to know, of the taxpayer's tax liability.

(11) Nothing in this section shall relieve a person from performing duties imposed under this Act, notwithstanding any failure to perform such duties by his representative.

(12) Where there are two or more representatives of a person, the duties or obligations referred to in this section shall apply jointly and severally to the representatives but may be discharged by any of them.

(13) Where—

- (a) a partnership or other unincorporated association or body is dissolved or otherwise ceases to exist because of the retirement or withdrawal of one or more, but not all, of its partners or members, or because of the admission of a new partner or member;
- (b) apart from the provisions of this Act a new partnership, association, or body, consisting of the remaining members, or of the existing or remaining members and one or more new members, thereby comes into existence; and
- (c) the new partnership, association, or body continues to carry on the activity that was carried on by the dissolved partnership, association, or body, the dissolved partnership, association, or body and the new partnership, association, or body are, for the purposes of this Act, shall be deemed to be one and the same.

(14) Where, after the death of a taxable person or the sequestration of a taxable person's estate, a taxable activity previously carried on by the taxable person is carried on by or on behalf of the executor or trustee of the person's estate or anything is done in connection with the termination of the taxable activity, the estate of the taxable person, as represented by the executor or trustee, shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the taxable person in respect of the taxable activity.

(15) Where a mortgagee is in possession of land or other property previously mortgaged by a mortgagor who is a taxable person, and the mortgagee carries on a taxable activity in relation to the land or other property, the mortgagee shall be deemed, from the date the mortgagee took possession of that land or property until such time as the mortgagee ceases to be in possession of the land or property, to be the taxable person carrying on the taxable activity.

(16) For the purposes of this Act, where a person is a trustee in more than one capacity, the person shall be treated as a separate person in relation to each of those capacities.

Officers of
bodies.

147. (1) A liability or obligation imposed by this Act on an unincorporated body shall be imposed on the body and on any person who is an officer of the body at the time the liability or obligation is imposed, and the body and each such officer shall be jointly and severally liable for that liability or obligation.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the existence of an unincorporated body and any taxable activity carried on by the unincorporated body shall be deemed not to be affected by any change in its members or officers.

(3) A document which is required to be served on an unincorporated body under this Act may be served on an officer of the body.

(4) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by an unincorporated body, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed by the officers of the unincorporated body.

Liability for tax

148. (1) This section shall apply to a company which is wound up without having satisfied its tax liabilities, including any liability to withhold and remit tax,

(2) A person who was a shareholder of the company at the time of the winding-up or during the preceding year shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the unpaid tax to the extent of a distribution of cash or property from the company received as a shareholder within one year prior to its winding-up.

(3) A person liable for tax of a company under this section may invoke any rights as against the Department that would have been available to the company.

149. (1) Where an entity fails to pay tax on time, every person who is or has been a manager of the entity at any time since the relevant time shall be jointly and severally liable with the entity and every other such person for payment of the tax.

Managers of entities.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply irrespective of whether the entity has ceased to exist or not.

(3) Provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to a manager who has exercised the degree of care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person in the position of the manager would have exercised in preventing in the initial and continuing failure to pay tax.

(4) Amounts payable to the Commissioner-General by a manager under this section shall be a personal tax liability of the manager.

(5) Where a manager pays tax by reason of a liability under subsection (1), the manager may recover the payment from the entity as a debt due.

(6) A manager of an entity may not be assessed for an amount under this section after the period of limitations for collecting the relevant tax from the entity has expired.

(7) In this section-

“entity” means any taxpayer other than a partnership, unincorporated body, or an individual;

“manager” of an entity includes a person purporting to act as a manager of the entity and, in the case of a company, includes a director, the chief executive officer, and the chief financial officer of the company; and “relevant time” is six months before the events that gave rise to the entity’s tax liability.

Refundable amounts.

150. (1) Where the amount of tax which has been paid by a taxpayer exceeds the amount of tax assessed or found to be payable, the Commissioner-General shall —

- (a) refund the amount against the taxpayer’s assessed liability to pay tax, interest, late fees, or penalties under this Act; and
- (b) unless the taxpayer objects, apply an amount remaining against the taxpayer’s liability to make advance payments of tax that shall become due within the succeeding six months.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), refundable amounts shall be paid to the taxpayer.

(3) A refund or credit may be made under this section only if the taxpayer applies for it within four years of the date of payment or, if made on the Commissioner-General’s initiative, within the specified time period.

Extension of time for payment.

151. (1) The taxpayer may apply, on a form specified by the Commissioner-General, for an extension of the time for payment of tax beyond the date on which it is required to be paid under section 145 of this Act.

(2) The Commissioner-General may, with good cause, extend the time for payment as requested under subsection (1) and may grant an extension period different from the period requested by the taxpayer, pending resolution of an appeal, and may make other arrangements to ensure payment of the tax, including arrangements requiring the person to pay the amount due in instalments or by requiring security.

(3) Where the Commissioner-General does not notify the person who made application under subsection (1), of the decision in writing within thirty days, the application shall be deemed to be granted.

(4) Where a taxpayer has been granted an extension under subsection (1), interest shall be payable notwithstanding the extension of time.

(5) If an extension is granted by permitting the taxpayer to pay the tax by instalments and the taxpayer defaults in paying any of the instalments, the amount of the outstanding tax shall become payable immediately.

152. (1) The Commissioner-General may send a notice to the taxpayer demanding payment when a tax is not paid by the date on which it became due and payable. Default in payment.

(2) The notice shall state:

- (a) the name of the taxpayer;
- (b) the taxpayer identification number (TIN), if such number has been issued to the taxpayer;
- (c) the date of issue of the notice;
- (d) the amount of tax, interest, and penalties payable, and the tax period or periods to which they relate;
- (e) a demand for payment of these amounts;

(f) the place at which payment is to be made; and

(g) that the taxpayer is on notice that, if payment is not made within twenty one days after service of the notice, the Commissioner-General has the right to institute action to collect the amounts specified in the notice.

(3) The taxpayer shall be in default, twenty-one days after service of the notice in respect of any amounts remaining unpaid as of that date.

(4) Subsection (3) shall not apply where the taxpayer has—

(a) entered into a payment arrangement with the Commissioner-General; or

(b) received an extension pursuant to section 151 and complied with terms of the arrangement.

Priority of tax.

(a) withholding tax;

(b) an amount that a payer is required to pay under a notice issued under section 170.

(2) A person owing, holding, receiving, or withholding an amount to which this section applies shall hold the amount in trust for the Republic of Sri Lanka and, in the event of the liquidation or bankruptcy of the person, the amount:-

(a) shall not form part of the person's estate in liquidation or bankruptcy; and

(b) shall be paid to the Commissioner-General before any distribution of property is made.

(3) Notwithstanding any other written law, withholding tax withheld by a person:-

- (a) shall not be subject to attachment in respect of any debt or liability of the person;
- (b) shall be a first charge on the payment or amount from which the tax shall be withheld; and
- (c) shall be withheld prior to any other deduction that the person may be required to make from the payment or amount under an order of any court or any law.

Order of payment of tax debts.

- (a) interest relating to the tax;
- (b) penalties relating to the tax; and
- (c) the principal amount of the tax.

(2) The Commissioner-General may apply a tax payment to any tax which has been assessed and is due—

- (a) where the taxpayer fails to indicate to which specific tax or taxation period the payment should be applied; or
- (b) where the payment has been collected pursuant.

CHAPTER XV

INTEREST

156. (1) Procedures for the payment, collection and dispute of a tax shall apply equally to interest relating to a tax.

General.

(2) Liability for interest under this Act shall be calculated separately and shall be in addition to penalties provided by law.

(3) If a person has paid interest and an amount to which the interest relates is found not to have been payable, the interest paid on that amount shall be refunded to the person.

Interest on under payments.

157. (1) If an amount of tax is not paid by the due date, the taxpayer shall be liable for interest on the amount for the period from the due date (determined without having regard to an extension of time) under section 151 to the date the tax is paid.

(2) In the case of tax due under a revised assessment, the due date for the calculation of interest shall be the original due date of the tax.

amounts.

158. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is required to refund an interest amount, it shall be paid to the taxpayer from the later of –

(a) the due date; or

(b) the date the tax was paid, until the date on which the refundable amount is paid.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), no interest shall be payable in respect of a refund that is based on a claim for refund and is paid to the taxpayer within sixty days of the filing of the claim for refund.

(3) A refundable amount that is applied against another tax liability under section 150 shall be considered to have been paid to the taxpayer on the due date of the liability against which the refundable amount was applied.

Interest rate.

159. (1) The interest rate for payments pursuant to section 157 shall be one and one-half per cent per month or part month, compounded monthly.

(2) The interest rate for payments pursuant to section 158 shall be one-half per cent per month or part month, compounded monthly.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the Minister may vary the interest rate by Order published in the Gazette.

CHAPTER XVI

RECOVERY OF TAX

160. The Commissioner-General may proceed with any remedy under this Chapter once the taxpayer is in default pursuant to section 152. General.

161. Institution of action under this Chapter shall be commenced within five years of the date on which the taxpayer was in default. Period of limitations for collection.

162. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is unable to recover an amount of tax, interest, or penalty due and payable by a person under this Act, the Minister may, on recommendation of the Commissioner-General and approval by the Cabinet, order the extinguishment of the liability as a debt due to the Government. Extinguishment of uncollectible amounts.

(2) Where the Commissioner-General determines that a person whose debt was extinguished under subsection (1) has assets that may be attached to recover all or part of the unpaid amounts, the liability for the debt may be reinstated by an order of the Minister, approved by Cabinet, revoking the order made under subsection (1).

163. (1) Tax that is due and payable shall be a debt to the Government and shall be payable to the Commissioner-General. Court proceedings.

(2) Where a person fails to pay tax when it is due, the Commissioner-General may commence proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover the debt outstanding in respect of the amount owing.

(3) In any proceedings under this section, the production of a certificate signed by the Commissioner-General, stating the name of the defendant and the amount of tax owing, shall be sufficient evidence that the amount is due for the court to give judgment in that respect.

(4) In any proceedings for the recovery of tax it shall not be a defence for the defendant that —

- (a) the tax, the taxable income or other tax base is incorrect;
- (b) the tax charged is excessive; or
- (c) the assessment is the subject of objection or appeal.

Lien.

164. (1) Where a taxpayer fails to pay a tax by the due date, a lien in favour of the Commissioner-General shall be created in the amount owing (together with interest, penalty and costs of collection that may accrue) on all property belonging to the taxpayer, and has priority as against all other rights, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) The lien referred to in subsection (1) shall arise at midnight at the commencement of the date of default and shall continue until the liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

(3) The lien imposed under this section shall not be valid against the interest of a person who is a purchaser from the taxpayer, a holder of a security interest granted by the taxpayer, or other lien holder specified in regulations, if the interest arises—

- (a) before the person had actual knowledge of the lien; or
- (b) before notice of the lien has been duly registered by the Registrar of the High Court and the Registrar of Lands, whichever occurs first.

(4) The Commissioner-General may file notice of a lien at any time after a taxpayer is determined to be in default pursuant to section 152.

(5) The Commissioner-General may specify procedures for filing notice of a lien and may specify categories of interests against which the lien shall not be valid even though notice of the lien has been filed.

(6) At least fifteen days prior to registering a lien with the Registrar of the High Court and the Registrar of Lands, the Commissioner-General shall send notice of the intention to register the lien to the taxpayer.

(7) Subsection (6) shall not apply where the Commissioner-General believes that the ability to collect tax is in jeopardy.

(8) The Commissioner-General may file action in the High Court to enforce the lien created by this section.

(9) An affected person may apply to the Commissioner-General for a release of the lien on the person's property and a decision by the Commissioner-General not to release a lien may be appealed to the High Court.

165. (1) Where the taxpayer is in default, the Commissioner-General may cause execution to be levied on the taxpayer's property but, except when a determination has been made under subsection (7) of section 164, the Commissioner-General may proceed to execution only if the taxpayer has been served with a notice of intention to levy execution, and the taxpayer has failed to pay the tax within thirty days after service of the notice.

Execution against taxpayer's property.

(2) Where the Commissioner-General has reasonable grounds to believe that the collection of tax is in jeopardy, the Commissioner-General may demand immediate payment of the tax and, on failure of the taxpayer to pay the tax within the period stated in such demand, may proceed to levy execution on the taxpayer's property immediately, notwithstanding subsection (3) of section 152.

(3) A person (including a bank or other financial institution) in possession of, or holding security over, property on which a levy has been made shall, on demand, surrender the property, or discharge the security, to the Commissioner-General, except in respect of the part of the property that is already subject to attachment or execution under judicial process.

(4) A person who fails to comply with the demand shall be liable to the Commissioner-General in the amount of the value of the property or security held, but not in excess of the amount for the collection of which the levy is made.

(5) A person complying with the requirements of this section or of section 170 shall, from the time of compliance, be discharged from an obligation to the taxpayer or another person to the extent of the value of property surrendered, or the security discharged, to the Commissioner-General and shall not be personally liable for loss or damage incurred as a consequence of compliance.

(6) A levy under this section shall commence within five years of the date on which the taxpayer was in default.

(7) A taxpayer's personal effects and household furnishings without substantial value shall be exempt from a levy.

Sale of seized property.

166. (1) Unless the Commissioner-General has good reason to release the seized property, the Commissioner-General shall sell the property seized pursuant to a levy.

(2) The sales proceeds shall be applied first against the expenses of the levy and sale, then against the liability for penalties, interest and tax and the excess shall be returned to the taxpayer.

(3) The Commissioner-General may make conditions with respect to the procedure on sale by public auction under the power of sale conferred on the Commissioner-General by this Act, and may—

- (a) fix an amount of a deposit to be made by the highest bidder;
- (b) reserve a price;
- (c) specify a time within which a deposit shall be made and the events following which it may be forfeited; and
- (d) declare, in the event that the highest bidder fails to make the required deposit or to complete the purchase within the required time, the next highest bidder to be the highest bidder and purchaser of the property.

(4) Seized goods or property shall be sold at public auction at a time and place as the Commissioner-General may direct, but no sale shall take place within fourteen days of the seizure of the goods or property, unless the goods seized are, in the opinion of the Commissioner-General, of a perishable nature, or the owner of the goods has requested their earlier sale.

(5) All goods seized under this Act shall be deposited in some fit place, or left in the possession of some fit person, as the Commissioner-General may determine.

(6) The date, time, and place of sale of all goods seized under this Act shall be published in the Gazette and notice thereof shall be given to the taxpayer prior to the date of sale unless those goods are being sold before the expiry of the fourteen day period under subsection (4).

(7) For the purpose of seizing and selling goods, a person may, if expressly authorised in writing by the Commissioner-General, execute a warrant of distress, and if necessary break open a building in the day-time to levy such distress; and may seek assistance from a police officer, when so required, to assist in the execution of a warrant of distress and in levying the distress.

(8) At the sale of goods or other property, a duly designated officer of the Government may bid for and purchase the goods or other property on behalf of the Republic of Sri Lanka.

(9) Where goods or property advertised for sale are not sold on the day appointed for the sale, the property may be put up for sale again.

(10) The officer or other person conducting the sale may report to the Commissioner-General the result of the sale and the Commissioner-General may direct that, upon payment of the purchase money the property be conveyed to the purchaser.

(11) Where the Commissioner-General, after review of the report provided pursuant to subsection (10), is satisfied that there has been fraud or improper conduct in relation to the sale of a property mentioned in the report or that the relevant tax had been paid prior to the date of sale, the Commissioner-General may declare the sale to be null and void.

(12) Upon the execution of the deed of conveyance or the assignment to the purchaser by the Commissioner-General in accordance with this section, the goods or property shall be vested in the purchaser freed and discharged from all encumbrances arising under this Act.

(13) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act authorising the Commissioner-General to sell a property for the recovery of tax, the conveyance or assignment executed to give effect to the sale shall not affect any interest, or right of the Republic of Sri Lanka in the property.

167. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is of opinion that any person who is a defaulter is about to or likely to leave Sri Lanka without paying:—

Departure
Prohibition Order.

- (a) tax that is payable by that person; or
- (b) tax that is payable by a company in which that person is a controlling member, which has become default as assessed upon his or otherwise, he may issue a certificate containing particulars of such tax and the name of such person to a Magistrate, who shall on receipt thereof issue a direction to the Controller General of Immigration and Emigration to take such measures as may be necessary to prevent such person from leaving Sri Lanka without paying the tax or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General, for payment thereof.

(2) At the time of issue of the certificate to the Magistrate, the Commissioner-General shall issue to such person a notification thereof by registered post. However, the non-receipt of any such notification by such person shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.

(3) Where the Commissioner-General has reasonable grounds to believe that the departure from Sri Lanka of any person who is a defaulter referred to in subsection (1) is imminent and that sufficient time is not available to act in terms of subsection (1), the Commissioner-General may issue a departure prohibition order, in writing, to the Controller General of Immigration and Emigration stating—

- (i) the name and address of the person;
- (ii) the amount of tax that is or will become payable by the person or by the company in which the person is a controlling member, and the Controller General of Immigration and Emigration shall take such measures as may be necessary to prevent such person from leaving Sri Lanka without paying the tax or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner- General, for payment thereof:

Provided however that the Commissioner General shall, as soon as may be practicable and in any event within seventy two hours of issuing such departure prohibition Order, make an application to the Magistrate to have the Order confirmed. Such departure prohibition Order shall be treated as revoked where no application has been made to the Magistrate within the aforementioned time period.

(4) The production of a certificate signed by the Commissioner-General or a Deputy Commissioner, stating that the tax has been paid or that security had been furnished to for the payment of the tax, or payment of the tax to a police officer in charge of a police station, shall be sufficient authority for allowing such person to leave Sri Lanka. Any police officer to whom the amount of any tax has been paid shall forthwith pay such amount to the Commissioner-General.

bankruptcy.

168. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other written Law—

(a) the trustee in bankruptcy of an individual; or

(b) the liquidator of a company which is being wound up, shall apply the assets of the bankrupt individual or the company, as the case may be, in payment of tax due under this Act (whether assessed before or after the date of bankruptcy or commencement of winding up) as a privileged debt in priority over all debts of that individual or company.

169. Where a government department, institution or Ministry is about to make a payment to any person, other than a payment in respect of wages or salary, that department, institution or Ministry may apply the whole or part of that payment in satisfaction in whole or in part to any amount in respect of which that person is in default under section 152, and shall notify that person accordingly. Offset against payments.

170. (1) If a taxpayer is in default, the Commissioner-General may serve a notice in writing on a third party debtor. Third party debtors.

(2) On receiving a notice, the third party debtor shall pay to the Commissioner-General (on account of the taxpayer and by the date specified in the notice) the least of the following three amounts:—

- (a) the amount in respect of which the taxpayer is in default;
- (b) the money owed by the third party debtor to the taxpayer; and
- (c) the amount specified in the notice.

(3) A notice may be served on a third party debtor in relation to an amount in a joint account only when:—

- (a) all the holders of the joint account have unpaid tax liabilities; or
- (b) the taxpayer may withdraw funds from the account (other than a partnership account) without the signature or authorisation of the other account holders.

(4) The date for payment specified in the notice shall not be before fifteen days following the date the third party debtor is served with the notice.

(5) On receiving a notice under subsection (1), the third party debtor shall not pay any amount to the taxpayer until the Commissioner-General withdraws the notice.

(6) As soon as practicable after service of the notice on the third party debtor, the Commissioner-General shall serve the taxpayer with a copy of the notice.

(7) Amounts payable to the Commissioner-General by a third party debtor under this section shall be a personal liability of the third party debtor, which may be collected in the same manner as a tax.

(8) Money owed to a taxpayer shall include—

- (a) amounts currently owing or that may subsequently become owing to a tax payer;
- (b) amounts held or that may subsequently be held for or on account of a tax payer;
- (c) amounts held or that may subsequently be held on account of a third person for payment to a tax payer;
- (d) amounts held by a person who has authority from a third person to pay the money to a tax payer; and
- (e) in relation to a third party debtor that is a financial institution, amounts that the tax payer holds in an account with the institution.

(9) A notice may be served under this section on the taxpayer's employer, requiring the employer to withhold and to pay to the Department, for a specified period, some part of the future wages or salary that becomes payable to the tax payer.

(10) The first seventy five thousand rupees of wages per month shall not be subject to withholding under a notice referred to in subsection (9).

(11) When the third party debtor fails to pay the amount specified within the time specified in a notice under this section, the provisions of this Act apply as if such amount were tax due and payable by the third party debtor on the date by which the third party debtor was required to make the payment to the Commissioner-General.

(12) In this section:—

“money” includes a debt obligation denominated or payable in money; and “third party debtor”, in relation to a taxpayer, means a person who owes money to the taxpayer.

171. (1) A third party who pays to the Commissioner-General, pursuant to section 170 shall be treated as having acted with the authority of the taxpayer and of all other persons concerned. Compliance with notice.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply irrespective of a provision to the contrary in any other written law, contract, or agreement.

(3) A notice issued under section 170 shall cease to have effect once the tax or obligations described in it is paid or otherwise satisfied.

(4) If a third party served with a notice under section 170 and is unable to comply with the notice by reason of lack of money owing to or held for the taxpayer, the person shall notify the Commissioner-General by notice hereinafter referred to as a “third party notice”.

(5) A third party notice shall—

(a) be in writing;

- (b) set out the reasons for the inability; and
- (c) be filed with the Commissioner-General as soon as practicable after the third party becomes aware of the inability and, in any event, before the payment date specified in section 170 notice.

(6) On receipt of a third party notice the Commissioner-General may, by notice in writing served on the third party—

- (a) accept the third party notice and cancel or amend the notice; or
- (b) reject the third party notice.

(7) The filing of a third party notice shall have no effect on the third party's personal liability for amounts unless and until the Commissioner-General cancels or amends the section 170 notice.

(8) In this section, "third party" means a third party debtor served with a notice under the preceding section.

Preservation of assets.

172. (1) This section shall apply where the Commissioner-General has reasonable cause to believe that:—

- (a) a taxpayer will not pay the full amount of tax owing when due; and
- (b) the taxpayer will take steps to frustrate the recovery of the tax, including the dissipation of the taxpayer's assets.

(2) The Commissioner-General may make an ex-parte application to the District Court having jurisdiction, for an order (hereinafter referred to as an "Asset Preservation Order") for the preservation of the assets of the taxpayer and prohibiting any person holding, controlling or managing assets belonging to the taxpayer from transferring, withdrawing, disposing or otherwise dealing with the assets.

(3) The Commissioner-General may take such steps as necessary to secure the assets of the taxpayer, including seizure of the assets, pending making an application for an order under subsection (2), which application shall be made within twenty four hours from taking steps to secure the taxpayer's assets.

(4) The District Court shall issue an asset preservation order when such court is satisfied that the requirements in subsection (1) are satisfied and the order shall be served on the taxpayer and any person having custody, control or management of the taxpayer's assets.

(5) An Asset Preservation Order shall be valid for ninety days and may be extended by the District Court on application by the Commissioner-General.

(6) A taxpayer whose funds are the subject of an Asset Preservation Order may, within fifteen days of being served with the order, apply to the District Court to discharge or vary the order.

(7) Where the District Court has issued an Asset Preservation Order, the Commissioner-General shall, within thirty days of service of notice of the order, determine the tax due by the taxpayer to whom the order relates and serve a notice of a tax assessment on the taxpayer and commence recovery of the tax assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(8) An Asset Preservation Order shall automatically expire upon service of a notice of assessment under subsection (7) unless the District Court extends the Order upon application by the Commissioner-General under subsection (5).

(9) A person who preserves funds pursuant to an Asset Preservation Order shall be, for all purposes, deemed to have acted within the authority thereof and such person and all other persons concerned shall be indemnified in respect of the actions taken in connection with the Order, against all proceedings, civil or criminal and all process, judicial or extrajudicial, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any written law, contract or agreement.

(10) A person who, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with an Asset Preservation Order served on the person shall be personally liable for the amount specified in the Order.

Non-arm's length transferees.

173. (1) Where a taxpayer's liability has not been satisfied after levy of execution on property known to the Commissioner-General, a person who has received assets of the taxpayer in a transaction that is not at arm's length in the period of one year preceding the date of the levy shall be secondarily liable for the tax to the extent of the value of the assets received.

(2) Provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to an amount for which a person is liable under section 148.

Transferred tax liabilities.

174. (1) When a taxpayer (hereinafter referred to as the "transferor") has a tax liability in relation to a business carried on by the taxpayer and the taxpayer has transferred all or some of the assets of the business to an associate (hereinafter referred to as the "transferee"), the transferee shall be personally liable for the unpaid tax liability (hereinafter referred to as the "transferred liability") of the transferor in relation to the business.

(2) Provisions of subsection (1) shall not preclude the Commissioner-General from recovering the whole or part of the transferred liability from the transferor.

Receivers.

175. (1) A receiver shall be required to notify the Commissioner-General of the receiver's appointment within fourteen days after being appointed.

(2) The Commissioner-General may notify the receiver of the amount that appears to the Commissioner-General to be sufficient to provide for payment of tax owing, or that will become owing, by the person whose assets are in the possession or care of the receiver.

(3) A receiver shall not dispose of an asset situated within Sri Lanka held in the receiver's capacity as receiver, without the prior permission of the Commissioner-General.

(4) A receiver shall set aside out of the proceeds of sale of an asset the amount notified by the Commissioner-General under subsection (2) or a lesser amount as may be agreed with the Commissioner-General.

(5) A receiver shall be personally liable for the amount of tax notified in subsection (2) to the extent of an amount required to be set aside under subsection (4), if the receiver fails to comply with the requirements of this section.

(6) In this section, "receiver" means a person who, with respect to an asset situated in Sri Lanka, is—

- (a) a liquidator of a company or other entity;
- (b) a receiver appointed out of court or by a court;
- (c) a trustee in bankruptcy;
- (d) a mortgagee in possession;
- (e) an executor, administrator or heir of a deceased individual's estate;
- (f) conducting the affairs of an incapacitated individual; or
- (g) a successor in a corporate reorganisation.

CHAPTER XVII

PENALTIES

Penalties.

176. (1) This section shall apply to penalties under this Act.

(2) Procedures for the assessment, payment, collection, and dispute of a tax shall apply equally to penalties relating to a tax.

(3) A person's liability for a penalty under a section in this Chapter is separate and distinct from the person's liability, if any, for a penalty under another section of this Act or any other law and is in addition to interest levied under Chapter XV and to a criminal sanction imposed under Chapter XVIII.

(4) The burden of proof shall be on the Commissioner-General to show non-compliance with the provisions of this Act with respect to the imposition of a penalty.

(5) The Commissioner-General may make an assessment of a penalty charged as if the penalty were tax payable under this Act, and may specify the date on which the penalty is payable.

(6) A notice of an assessment of a penalty shall be served on the person who is liable to the penalty and shall state the amount of the penalty payable, the provision under which it is payable, and the due date for payment, and on service of the notice —

- (a) the notice and the assessment shall be treated as if they were a notice and assessment of tax payable under this Act;
- (b) the amount of the penalty specified in the notice shall be treated as tax payable under this Act; and
- (c) the due date for payment is the date specified in the notice.

(7) A person's liability to pay a penalty shall arise on the making of an assessment by the Commissioner-General under subsection (6).

  - (ii) higher than twenty five per cent of the person's tax liability for the period.

181. (1) A person who makes a statement to a tax official that is false or misleading in a material particular shall be liable for a penalty if an amount properly payable by or refundable to the person under this Act exceeds or is less than the amount that would be payable or refundable if the person were assessed on the basis that the statement was true.

False or misleading statements.

(2) The amount of the penalty for which the person is liable shall be the greater of fifty thousand rupees —

- (a) if an amount payable by the person would have been less if it were determined on the basis of the information provided in the statement, the amount by which that amount would have been so reduced; or
- (b) if the amount of a refund that the person applied for would be increased if it were determined on the basis of the information provided in the statement, the amount by which that amount would have been so increased.

(3) No penalty shall be imposed under this section if the person who made the statement did not know and could not reasonably be expected to know that the statement was false or misleading in a material particular.

(4) A reference in this section to a statement made to a tax official shall include a reference to a statement made orally, in writing, or in another form to that officer acting in the performance of the officer's duties under this Act, and shall include a statement made—

- (a) in an application, certificate, declaration, notification, return, objection or other document made, prepared, given, filed, submitted or furnished under this Act;
- (b) in any information required to be furnished under this Act;
- (c) in a document furnished to a tax official otherwise than pursuant to this Act;
- (d) in an answer to a question asked of a person by a tax official; or
- (e) to another person with the knowledge or reasonable expectation that the statement would be conveyed to a tax official.

(5) A reference in this section to a statement that is misleading in a material particular shall include a reference to a statement which contains an omission of a matter or thing from the statement.

(6) This section shall not apply to conduct subject to the penalty under section 180.

Failure to maintain documents or provide facilities.

182. (1) A person who fails to maintain proper documents as required by this Act shall be liable for a penalty for each month or part of a month during which the failure continues.

(2) The penalty shall be one thousand rupees per day for each day the failure continues.

(3) Before assessing a penalty under this section, the Commissioner-General shall issue a warning notice, and no penalty shall be due under this section if the taxpayer complies with the warning notice within the time specified in the notice.

(4) A person who fails to render reasonable facilities and assistance to a tax official as required by or under this Act shall be liable for a penalty in an amount not exceeding ten thousand rupees.

183. A person who fails to comply with a notice issued under section 170 shall be liable for a penalty of twenty five per cent of the difference between the amount payable by the third party and the amount paid to the Commissioner-General by the due date specified in the section 170 notice.

Failure to comply with third party notice.

184. Where any person fails to comply with the requirements, of section 76 or 77 in relation to transactions with associated enterprises, the Commissioner- General may impose on such person—
